Charlevoix Sentinel.

CHARLEVOIX, JUNE 22, 1885.

WILLIAM A. SMITH,
EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

There are 9,000 Chippewa making boats and shoes in this country.

The editor of the Iowa National thinks there is a whole lot of sense in his editorial. It is a bigger snake than even a straight Democrat ever sees. Greenback ism is a fearful thing.

An Illinois woman of 80 has brought suit for divorce against her husband of 25. She thinks he married her for money.
It will be difficult for him to find a jury that it was her blushing youth that attracted him.

The New York and Brooklyn suspension bridge, which started on a plan of 200 feet above low water, and an estimated cost of $7,000,000, has got down to only 125 feet above water, and up to an actual cost of $10,000,000.

A terrific rain had been swept over Denver lately. Thousands of dollars worth of property was destroyed in the city and surrounding country. Several houses were swept away. It is said that many lives were lost.

The Providence Press thinks "no better proof" of the execution of the Greenback cause could be found than in the unanimity with which the extension of the national bank charter was demanded and approved by the people.

A woman named Mary Seybold, the wife of a journeyman baker residing at 31 Broad street, Chicago, killed her husband and four little children lately, by means of strychnine. The poor woman was driven insane by domestic troubles.

A way has been found for making old penny cards useful. Out lengthwise in to strips about an eighth of an inch wide they make excellent lampbrushes, which burn readily, do not throw off sparks, and leave scarcely a trace of ash.

A new book of poems by Longfellow will be published in a few weeks. They were found among his papers, arranged for publication in book form, with the title, "The Harbor." All these poems were written during his later years.

The Greenbackers of Missouri are making up the Democracy of that state a little excited by refusing to favor the Democratic delivery of all the congressional districts of the new appointment—the virtual disfranchisement, they say, of 180, 000 voters.

Up in Boone county a few days ago,
Mrs. Maggie Miller procured a divorce from her husband on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment. She proved the bad treatment by her own sister. A few days after the sister and divorced husband were married.

One hundred years ago, small pox was spreading its terrors through Europe, and Madame Elizabeth, sister of Louis XVI, offered her fair arm for inoculation to convince the people of its virtue. The people manifested their gratitude a few years later by shooting off her head.

A gentleman writing from Chicago, N. Y., is a friend in Chicago says: "Hill money mills, employing over 5,000 hands, are idle on account of the strike of the operatives against a proposed reduction of 10 per cent. These mills, representing an investment of nearly $1,000,000, are likely to remain closed."

A Grand Rapids woman a few days ago attempted to commit suicide by emanation. She set fire to her clothing, but when the flames began to burn bravely
she set up some fearful yells for help, which arrived in time to save her. After a hospital course of a week or two she will be all right.

Orphans do not take kindly to shipwreck. A Western boy, 10 years of age, being warned of corrective attention from his father, procured an injunction
by sending a pistol bullet into his stomach, from the effect of which it is believed he will avoid all temporal punishment for evermore.

On the last day of May eight thousand loaded at Seattle Garden 935 immigrants, the largest number ever received in one day. Among them were sixty silk weavers from Massachusetts, and over a hundred millions from Hungary. The total arrivals for May, 1885, outnumbered those of the entire year of 1875 or 1876.

The returns from the census, taken last year, and better as the news from the back country comes in. The Republican majority will probably reach 5,000, which is the largest ever received since the state was organized. The Republicans also elect their candidate for Supreme Judge, who was first reported defeated by the Democratic candidate. It begins to look as if Oregon is a new state for the Union, and the first of the new states and placed in the solid Republican column.

Charlevoix Sentinel.

CHARLEVOIX, JUNE 29, 1882.

WILLIAM A. WHITE,
EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

The Milwaukee authorities are closing up the gambling institutions of that city.

The strike of freight loaders at New York assumes larger proportions than was anticipated.

Charles Beck, a Toledo wife murderer, has been sentenced to the penitentiary for ten years.

A cyclone at Amsterdam, N. Y., did serious damage lately. No loss of life yet reported.

Weeden and Maloney, the pugilists, are being hunted up by the authorities. They have made themselves scarce.

A Petersburg, Va., saloon-keeper has a mental home, which plays a game each time a drink is poured from it.

About 250,000 pounds of fish are sold in New York daily. Of this quantity about 65 per cent goes out of the city.

Two more explosions occurred in the Leigh & Wilkes' mine lately. Eight men were badly wounded. The mine is on fire.

One hundred and ten thousand persons, over 20,000 of them women and girls, used the free bath of New York last week.

A farm named Warren Myle, while driving through the village of Olmstead, Ohio, was hit by a stray bullet, inflicting a fatal wound.

A heavy blow and rain storm occurred at St. Louis lately. Every telegraph line in the city was prostrated and a good deal of plate glass broken.

A decision has been made by the Ohio Supreme Court involving the fact that money paid to county officials under the Pond law can be recovered.

It is rumored that about 1,500 Indians are preparing to make a raid on Old Fort McKim, Wyoming. General Crook has sent troops to prevent the raid.

While asleep in his berth, James Dwyer, captain of the ship Clark, of Springfield, Mass., was attacked by the Chinese crew and literally hacked to pieces.

The French fishing schooner, La Spirit, sank on the 10th inst., and took down the whole crew, numbering 17 hands. The wreck of the disaster was on St. Peter's Banks.

A Washington evening journal prints a letter from Boston, giving warning of a plot by men and women of that city to assassinate President Arthur and Charles H. Reed.

Preparations are being made to erect a racemoot hotel at Mackinac, this summer, capable of accommodating 1,000 guests, and make it a grand summer resort. Chicago parties are the movers.

The director of the mint reports the gold product for 1881 at $24,000,000, and that of 1882 at $24,000,000. California leads the list, with California second, while Nevada shows less than $2,000,000.

Rev. C. De Best, pastor of the Church of the Holy Trinity at Kalamazoo, has been caught pilfering from money. The affair was quietly settled, and then the church authorities told him to skip and he skipped.

One Dr. Solomon Stoughton, of Watertown, Mass., has been fined $100 for accepting bribes for issuing false phrenology certificates. There are not a few doctors who, if they had their dearest, would be in the same boat.

New Philadelphia, Miss., railroad laborers while grading cut the earth into what proved on investigation to be a series of cavities, caused of excavation, caused with mud and rejected with sand of marvellous whiteness.

The new telegraph company under the name and firm of the Postal Telegraph company proposes to take business letters at night, and transmitting them by wire have them by mail at their destination in the morning.

The new postal card is to have "a flexible flap." Why not make it with a "flexible pocket" for postage and other love letters? What is the use of a flexible flap to conceal the message? It will only make the letter more conspicuous in mail the envelope.

Mr. Upton furnishes the following information, which is believed to be correct, a slight error which was made a few days ago. Mr. Upton's father, Daniel Upton, of Boston, N. H., is nearly 100 years old, feeling as he does, from Dec. 1, 1882. His wife is in her 73d year. Their families are remarkably preserved, and they live upon the farm where they commenced life together, in September, 1821, and which is the home for her son, Mr. Upton, and a family of thirteen. Mr. Upton hopes to return this week.

Headline, the English edition, started in recent address the threat of his escape to bankruptcy him, had brought him as a gift from Philadelphia of $10,000 for a series of lectures in America, the money to be paid in advance.

The commonwealth of Pennsylvania have attached securities representing $50,000,000 of the estate of Wm. F. Wall, who moved from Reading to Philadelphia to escape taxation. The State claim that Wall's estate was in taxation $250,000, and has sued for that sum.

Harvesting has commenced in southern Illinois and southeastern Missouri, and it is thought that at least 25,000,000 bushels of wheat will be put upon the market in those portions of the country. It is stated that the whole state of Missouri presents magnificent prospects for a grand harvest.

Just as a girl was about to down her self at Athens, Ala., a man caught her in a trap, but he had her last. "Give you ten minutes to think it over," he said, "and then if you want to die, I'll let you do it." When the time was up he released her, and she quietly went home.

John Terry, a wealthy farmer residing near Flint, was arrested on a suspicion on the 12th on a complaint of Lydia Olmstead, who claims $10,000 damages for breach of promise to marry and seduction. Carry a prominent church member, and has always been considered above reproach.

The Morgan envelope company of Springfield, Mass., and the Plinton manufacturing company of Hartford, Conn., have together made the lowest bid for supplying the postoffice department with stamped envelopes for four years. These companies have also secured the contract for official envelopes for the use of "post-masters."

In 1875, 1,776 silver dollars were issued in 1881 nearly 30,000, and now the 1882 coin can be had for $1.50, while those bearing the 1881 date coin can be had for $1.00. In explanation of this it is supposed that the issue of 1881, being about the last of the coinage of the silver dollar, until 1876, was shipped in bulk from the country.

It is reported from Maine that one of the marked features of the recent Republican convention held in that State was the presence of many men who had "cut" with the Republicans for some years, and who have now become thoroughly disgusted with Democracy and Judaism.

It is one of the amusing signs of the times that this is not so only in Maine but elsewhere. It inspires Maine Republicans with the belief that their victory will be decisive. In other States its effect are the same.

Yor Judge the same other day young man for two years in jail for counterfeiting. When he came together with the young man, he was again convicted of this same crime, and the father to six years in jail. The son was again convicted. The lesson had no effect and owed his father both in his mind and in his heart.

Now, in the case of the negro, the same thing is found in the words of the Kilmbock House. The negro is a man of great strength, good heart, and enthusiasm. His education would be complete, his action very strong. In the ladies with whom she is not intimate. She sold a pair of shoes for $1.00, and was working at a vaudeville, and she will send her letters with water. Letter-postage with a crust is supremely elegant, and of universal appeal. Embellish, flowers, monkeys, insects and other fantastic designs that you see in the catalogues'—flowers are not considered chic except by actresses, etc. The catalogues' and the dress are easy facilities to the extreme in curves and intricate carving. There are three or four of these. Gursat or Gormm a thousand times the stich and emblematic bearing.—London fatigue, happen to be weary, and, unless walking up and down in which some feeble men, and a very few women designate—feel, are forced to do it, a fatigue which speedily becomes insupportable, and would probably be fatal if exercise was protracted, exhaustion or even fainting. That peculiar form of the relation between mind and body, if the power be hollow, how quite satisfactorily explained, any more than the extreme exhaustion in sleep, but nobody doubts its existence, and that is at least a new and important discovery for exercise for the sedentary. They hate it in spite of all arguments, and exercise without sleep is a very disagreeable extra fatigue. —London Spectator.

EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

A toothpick over 1000 years old is still thriving in the cathedral at Hildesheim.

Eighty-eight little children died from the effects of the heat in New York, lately.

A young lady dentist has opened a shop in an Illinois town, and an epidemic of toothache has set in.

Hon. H. Stuart has been reelected for Congress by the Republicans of the Third Minnesota District.

A special election has been appointed at Ludington to vote on the question of issuing bonds for a city hall.

Hon. J. G. Cameron has been reelected for Congress by the Democrats of the Fourth Illinois District.

Becker can't live any way in playing a game of cards if you don't try to cheat your opponent by dealing yourself both bawls and the joker.

Mining began in Utah in 1870, and the output since that time has been $18,000,000 of gold, silver and lead. The mining area embraces 5,000,000 acres.

During a thunderstorm, out West, a book salesman took shelter under a tree and was struck on the cheek by lightning. The lightning was badly damaged.

One hundred and seventy-eight persons were killed lately in a railway accident in Russia. The remainder of the 217 persons on board were more or less injured.

Thirty years ago the tonnage of all the railroads in the United States did not exceed 5,000,000 tons; last year the amount transported was calculated at 500,000,000 tons.

You are as full of aim as a musketeer, in what a young man said to a girl who refused to be his wife. The girl said: "I may be, but I don't want to be a musketeer."

Judge Jeffers, of Iosquepa county, as Judge of the Supreme Court, has been nominated for Congress by the Republicans in the old Snowshoe District of Mississippi.

Joseph Wunders of Williamsport, Penn., his wife, son and three daughters together worth 1200 pounds, and it is their claim that they are the heaviest family in the state.

Charles N. Alston, a Swede, writes from Stockholm that he proposes to bring to America Swedenborg's little common sense, the only thing connected with that theologian remaining in Sweden.

The czar has received the present of a fine guitar, one string of which has been found to be filled with an explosive substance sufficient to kill any one who might try to play upon it.

A train was drawn from Patterson to New York lately by a water gas or hydro-gas-burning engine, and the train made the schedule time, with a minute and a half to spare.

The Republican Convention for the Twentieth Illinois District, met at Cairo on the 19th, to nominate a candidate for congress. There are two factions and a bitter fight was had.

Although England has in practice done away with the burial of suicides at four cross-roads, it still retains by law the custom of burying suicides at the cross-roads, and the law is still in force.

The United States Government is about to pay into the Treasury of Missouri $250,000 on account of war claims. Now Government creditors can pay the full price for their claims.

Over 8,000,000 rabbit skins are expected from New Zealand annually. They are imported in large quantities in this country at a cost of twenty cents apiece, and are then worked up into imitation of sable fur.

Three men were hanged at Stone Falls, D. T., lately for wife murder. At the first attempt the rope broke, but the un-conscious men were again placed on the drop, and, upon falling, the neck broke with a snap.

The army worm is eating the grain in Kentucky, little red ants are eating the army worms, and squirrels are eating the ants. Now it something will eat up the army worms it will be a calamity of the worst kind. That is growing as a rule.

The Independent Republicans of Pennsylvania have definitely declined to consider the four propositions submitted by the Republican State Committee. The Independent are now considering the proposition of offering a new basis for compromise.

John R. Smith, of Hudson, received the nomination for Congress in the Second District election, on the 20th, on the twenty-second ballot.

The Eighth District Republicans have nominated Hon. R. G. Hottel, by acclamation, and he opened the campaign at once by a two hours speech.

At the dinner given the President by Cassius M. Smith, on the evening of the 21st, at Niagara, the walls of the room were hidden from view by flowers, and at each place were twelve glasses and a $25 bouquet.

"There is not a drop of Communitarian blood in the Republican ranks," says the organ. And yet that party has just held a convention and got into a bed with a party which it has hitherto denounced as worse than Communism.

Socialist West of West. Bay City, ran a wordy line a year of one of his longtime friends, who were to be taken off
it, required a difficult and painful operation to extract the broken fragment. Then he was expelled to the shoulder, and had to be removed. He is now getting well but his finger will be sore for days.

The Iowa Standard says that a flock of blackbirds have kept the every worm from the cornfield belonging to George H.
Webster. The birds station themselves on the side of the field where the worms were appearing and every now and then would fly in a solid mass to the ground as if to attack something. Examination showed that the worms had come up to the fence, but had not reached the corn.

A 15-year-old boy named Thomas Swanson was sent to the reform school at Grand Haven, Mich., on the 11th inst.
for going through the coat pockets of Judge Coleman in a bowling alley and taking therefrom a wallet containing $1-50 worth of checks, drafts and notes, but no money. Not knowing the value of the papers the boy tore them up, but enough of them were found for identification.
The judge had taken off his coat and laid it down while he called for a drink.

At Grand Haven the telephone night services has gone into effect, and a ring
at the bell will be answered at any time during the day or night. The particular object of the service is to keep the night watchmen from being disturbed. Every watchman has to report at the central office once an hour, and if he goes to sleep and doesn't report a fine is sent after him. A record is kept at the central office of every call, and if the man is late in making the call his employer or his wife is notified of it in the morning. Grand Haven is the only place in the state, outside of Detroit, which has the service.
Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo and Bay City are among the cities which have the all night arrangement.

Charlevoix Sentinel.

CHARLEVOIX, NOV. 16, 1892.

PUBLISHED BY A. J. McLEOD.

The Republican party possesses all the old vitality.

What will the Democrats do with their "Union"?

Those of our readers who are not Democrats.

The Republican party is always strong and sure.

With the Democracy it is not right but might which counts.

Republicans should shake hands all round and recognize for 1892.

A London publisher has given $24,000 prize for Christmas and designs this year.

Joe Brown is expected to resign his seat in the Senate, but he won't. You see he does.

Don't put all the blame on the other fellow. It does not encourage the other fellow, nor help you.

Nothing but eternal malice demonstrates the majority of the people have not voted with the Democracy.

Backs the American, it is not in our hands (1892) for the second time.

A young general, New York, who has made the seat from the child's hand, has been sent to the military school.

The Washington & Annapolis Railroad, of South Carolina, is to be sold.

Uncle Sam is to be sold by the government.

Uncle Sam is to be sold by the government.

There will be an exhibition of a constitutional amendment. At least the completion of the legislature warrants that conclusion.

A Pennsylvania law prohibits the parade of any political organization on the streets of Philadelphia for two days before any general election.

Four Texas cowboys contended for a $100 prize at Austin, lately, for the longest throw and tying down a steer, the winner doing the work in 105 seconds.

Mrs. Langley having come to America, a Boston girl is said to have succeeded her in the dangerous feat of a certain exalted presence in England.

The Republican party is not a party of the dead, as the people say, but a party of the living.

At the close of the year the candidates will discover when they engage in another campaign.

The catfish, composed of Georgia farmers, each of whom gives two barrels of catfish to the member of the club who raises the most fish in the year, is a success in that state.

Cereus, the Washington banker, is about to receive the remains of John Brown and place them in his "casket" in the city.

A Washington, N. Y., lady cracked a peach stone, five years ago, and finding two pits inside, planted both. This year, the tree grew from these pits produced a beautiful crop, three or four trees bearing white peaches, and the other yellow.

The Boston Post is among the highest and most successful newspapers, papers which Ben Butler has obliged to swallow their own words. It is very eloquent and very appropriate. Ben Butler is with us.

Another article in the patent office at Washington. Charming wife of male slave charges more than one hundred dollars for the patent office. The patent office, where we look only for models.

The Hon. D. C. M. of Newport, R. I., was expected to have said, as a treasurer where moth and rust is not corrupt, but his congregation was surprised last week, when he died, to find that he had also stored up the matter of $10,000 in his pocket.

The General University students, at the close of the year, in the city of Baltimore, are in the city of Baltimore.

It is a question.

The will of Mary M. Perkins, of Boston, gives all her property to her husband, without giving the name. Her husband was John G. Perkins, but John Hardy, who formerly held the high office, but had been divorced from her, was the one who was the driver was a fraud, and this is a good.

COUNTY TREASURER'S REPORT.

Statement of Receipts and Disbursements of the County Treasurer for the Year ending September 30, 1892.

To the Hon. Board of Supervisors of Charlevoix County.

GENTLEMEN: Your Committee on the subject of the County Treasurer's report, has the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the same, and to report the same to you.

AGRICULTURAL EDUCATION.

Report of the National Education Committee on Agriculture.

The report of the National Education Committee on Agriculture, which was presented to the National Education Association at its annual meeting in New York City, is a valuable contribution to the study of agricultural education.

We are glad to see that the National Education Committee has taken such a deep interest in agricultural education, and that it has been able to secure the cooperation of so many of our leading educators.

The report is a valuable contribution to the study of agricultural education, and it is to be hoped that it will lead to a more general recognition of the importance of this branch of education.

WILLIAM A. WATSON,
EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

After 20 years of life, Uncle Tom's Cabin sells today as readily as when first published.

Without fail new day would have sold a dollar's worth of it in the New York Tribune.

A special and satisfactory settlement of the "great" controversy in regard to the publication of the "Cabin" is now in progress.

The "Cabin" will stand as a monument to the power of the press in the United States. Call for a copy of the "Cabin" at the office of the Sentinel.

Since the beginning of the National Banking System and currency banks have been placed in the hands of the government.

The Kansas City Times speaks of "Colonel James" who is now in the hands of the authorities in Missouri.

There were 410 votes in the State given for the first time.

Some of the facts which have been brought up by the press.

Col. Henderson, chairman of the committee on the subject of the currency.

Detroit, Mich., the total vote for Governor of Michigan at the recent election was 515,253.

It is a good thing to recall the Republic of the present Congress.

Somewhat what has been constructed a program for the action of Congress this winter.

We would like to make some money.

The following from the New Orleans Times is good. A man was carrying a coin he had bought when he met three little boys in the road. All three said, "Give us one of those coins, give us one of those coins, give us one of those coins." "Well boys I'll tell you what I will do. If you will tell me the party you belong to, and why I'll give you the coin which gives the best reason for his faith." "A Republican because that party saves the Union" said one. "A Greenbacker because that party is in favor of plenty of money" When the third of the boys came he said "I am a Democrat because I want the coin."

We have a fine stock of winter, small wares, and boys and girls hats.

NOTICE.
Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been appointed receiver of the estate of the late John A. Smith, deceased, and will receive all claims against said estate, and will pay the same as they may come due.

Stiffness, the slinger, has finally killed a bird who attempted to win $1000 by standing up for a fight of four rounds with the champion.

Almost three hundred persons witnessed the murder, which occurred at a variety theater in Washington several days ago.

One would naturally suppose that a majority of birds would make the calling and election of a candidate for Congress.

But the case of John A. Smith, of Kansas, is to be contested, and his majority reached the figures named. This champion contestant is a Greenbacker by the name of Wood.

Skates for the old and skates for the young, and they make a nice Christmas present.

Thomas L. Talbot has been appointed Postmaster at Washington, vice D. B. Meyer.

Talbot is a native of New Hampshire, and occupied there as has been the position of Secretary of State. During the campaign of 1872 he was the Secretary of the Congressional committee, and for the last four or five years he has been laboring for the general position of that city.

Every Board of Trade in the Dominion of Canada, it is said, will forward a petition to Congress demanding that the Canadian tariff be made free.

This indicates the spirit in which the business men of Canada meet any movement in this country looking to the removal of the tariff. The enlargement of the Erie Canal was met by the improvement of the Canadian canal, and the meeting of the New York canal is met by the improvement of the Canadian canal.

At Marquette, Mich., the other evening, Mrs. Martha Chapman, the wife of an abolitionist, was the center of a scene.

She was surrounded by a large number of men, and she was being carried to the street by a large number of men. She was being carried to the street by a large number of men. She was being carried to the street by a large number of men.

The formal opening of the southern division of the Mexican Central Railroad, extending from the City of Mexico northward to Guanajuato, occurred last week.

The southern division of the same road, extending from El Paso to Chihuahua, was opened last September, and the road now touches the mining districts of the north as well as the south. There are to be built some 500 miles of road to connect the southern and northern divisions, and this there will be a continuous line of railway from Chicago to the City of Mexico.

Don't be deceived by interested parties who represent that other goods are "good" or "better" than the celebrated line of Garlands.

Garlands are the best of their kind, and they are the only ones that are made in this country. They are the only ones that are made in this country. They are the only ones that are made in this country.

The President, last Saturday afternoon, directed the removal of Edwin S. Spencer, government director of the United States.

Spencer, a native of New York, was appointed to the position of director of the United States. He was appointed to the position of director of the United States. He was appointed to the position of director of the United States.

The Republicans have been in power more than twenty years, and, though they have been in the minority of the House at times, they have usually been members of the majority. The majority of the House has been (since the death of Mr. [James] H. McMillan) no objection has ever been made that they should not retain their position in their office. Indeed, Davis himself declared that the French way to announce the candidate was to announce the President-elect, and that the President-elect, Judge Lind, one of the first Republicans to be elected, was the best man for so much of a Democrat that he is ranked among the possible candidates for the Presidency.

Judicial Department of the Government to be aroused in its business until the Democrats have selected nine members of the Supreme Court.

Supposes the Democrats should fall in 1883 to have a President in office, must the appointment of all judges be postponed until the Democrats are elected? Will the reform of that party to power? No reason exists why the Supreme Court should be compelled to wait until 1884 for the election of a President, and not with equal force and propriety be glad to get even that, but who are so prepared to believe that he has so little faith in his own destiny as to pledge himself to wait until the Democrats are sure, then are Democrats liberabulous who are telling him to go now, that he will not be disappointed, and that these frank-spoken advisers are not his most intimate friends.

But the Indiana boomers are going to make a mistake, not only not to let Cleveland stand, but they go further still and declare that if Mr. Hendricks is elected, they will not be satisfied.

The Admission of Dakota.

The Democratic opposition to the admission of Dakota, of the southern half of it, as a State, is purely partisan and as utterly malignant. They have urged no reason against it which is not false or overle on its facts, and the real objection they have to it is the fear that it will cast a Republican vote and

We do not want to appear as disapproving this Indiana method of running for the Presidency a year and a half in advance. Indeed, it strikes us as an excellent device, and it is a pity that so much more cannot be done to give Democratic candidates now than they have in 1884. There are no obstacles now and no opposing candidates. The new Democratic Congress has not met, and the crop of blunders which is certain to

[illegible]

This document is worthy of them and of the crisis. It starts off with the bold announcement that there has been reached between Mr. Cleveland and Senator McDonald an understanding that the former shall decline to be a candidate for President and shall consent to a next second place on the ticket and support Mr. McDonald for the first place. A manifesto which opens with a declaration like that is sure to be read. There is a boundless improbability about it which is captivating. In the whole United States there is in all probability no human being who believes be glad to get even that, but we are not prepared to believe that he has so little faith in his own destiny as to pledge himself to be satisfied with it now. To be sure, there are Democrats hereabouts who are telling him to go slow, that he is young yet and can afford to wait, but these frank-spoken advisers are not his most intimate friends.

But the Indiana boomers are going straight ahead. They not only put Mr. Cleveland aside, but they go further still and declare that if Mr. Hendricks is

We do not want to appear as dis-proving this Indiana method of running for the Presidency a year and a half in advance. Indeed, it strikes us as an excellent idea. It is much easier and much more pleasant to run as a Democratic candidate now than it will be in 1884. There are no obstacles now and Democratic Congress has not met, and

Of one of the sportsmen who home empty-handed from the arctic hunt recently the following is related: "I have been hunting seals for some time, but have not acquired the keeper country store."

The Nimrod descended from his way and followed the countryman into the forest yard. The fox was fast but strong and fastened to a stake.

"Now, you may slatter the hall if you want," the countryman took a cautious sidestep and discharged his gun. A smoke cleared away no fox was seen. The shot from the gun had is exhausted, this is the most profitable way this course may be abridged where the market is far away, other modes must be resorted to. All who desire to receive the highest prices for their dressed poultry, should be careful to select the best of their fowls and preparing them for market. It will hardly do to offer old hens for spring chickens; nor will it do to send to market fowls that are past their prime. If dressed more properly. Where care is not taken in buying fowls cheaply dressed, and giving them a clean appearance, they will not readily sell at the highest prices. It is especially the duty of the butcher to see that the fowls he offers

As soon as they were despoiled of feathers, the birds were placed in a warm room, where the fowl is kept. I think the birds are improved by just dipping the foot into smoking water and at once removing it. Before the birds are plucked they are scalded from leaving the hot and wet feathers to partially cook the skin. These and ducks it is often found necessary to scald in water before plucking. The fine, downy feathers. I find it best often to singe over to remove the long hairs, which sometimes give the feathers a shagreened appearance. I have never heard of

Then the body is to be raised large, and the liver, heart and gizzard the best having been emptied and cleanly should be returned to the inside. This is an operation to be performed with great care. It is only necessary to make a very small opening to draw the liver, but no incision will take the place of

WILLIAM A. WILFRED,
EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

The Hon. Joseph Holt, who was President Buchanan's Postmaster General and afterward Secretary of War and Judge Advocate General, lives in strict retirement in Washington. He is a cautious politician, and is very seldom seen in public.

The last week of the month has been a very busy one for the Sentinel. It has been a week of great interest and activity. The Sentinel has been very busy in the past week, and it is very glad to be able to publish this issue.

Says the South Haven Messenger: "Let the Post and Tribune believe that there is a great deal of interest in the Sentinel. The Sentinel is a very interesting paper, and it is very glad to be able to publish this issue."

Every member who voted to publish the Sentinel is a very good man. The Sentinel is a very interesting paper, and it is very glad to be able to publish this issue.

Speaking of his party, Mr. Thurman said recently that "the party is in a very good position. The party is a very good party, and it is very glad to be able to publish this issue."

It is evident that the party is in a very good position. The party is a very good party, and it is very glad to be able to publish this issue.

peanuts are present in liberal quantities in the soil. The yield per acre is from fifty to over two or three hundred bushels of peanuts. The soil is composed of a light, sandy loam, which is the best condition of the land for growing peanuts. The soil is very dry porous soil is most favorable for growing water and cold wet soils are not favorable. Tensionless lands are only suitable for growing peanuts. The quantity of peanuts that are produced grows when the temperature is high.

The cultivation of the peanut does not require much labor. The farmer crops the land with improved implements and rapid work, the times of work there may be as ordered as to leave the land in the best condition for the ordinary seasons, three weeding, the boxes are amply sufficient, and twenty two are enough. The land is not much more than the plow and cultivator, and the plow is the most useful, where any is used, is generally applied at planting time, the plow is used in summer till the plow is used in the fall. The peanuts begin to form to much extent in the soil and the crop is harvested in the fall.

WILLIAM A. B. SMITH, JR.,
EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

Additional Locals.

—H. Lee Iddings of Albion, has purchased a half interest in the hardware business of M. J. Brockman, and will make this place his future home. Mr. Iddings is a practical hardware man, and a gentleman who will prove a valuable accession to our village.

—Chas. H. Ford, well known to the people of this region, is before the courts in Detroit on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. Ford and the editor of this paper for libel once, claiming $10,000 damages, and got in jail for some $10,000 before the thing came to trial.

—The propeller Champlain came in sight of this port on Thursday afternoon, and attempted to enter the harbor through the ice field which nearly filled the outer bay. She labored industriously till after dark, and the morning found her half way through and still at work. She hammered away all day Friday, (27th) and at five o'clock came through the bridge after considerable difficulty in getting over the bar. She remained here all night and discharged a large amount of freight for Charlevoix and up-lake merchants. The Champlain was on her trip from Chicago here, having been bound in Milwaukee three days. The Lawrence is expected along the first of next week.

(Business Local.)

Dr. A. B. Spencey, of Detroit, will be at the Postpaid City House on Monday and Tuesday May 14th and 15th. The Doctor devotes his whole time, and gives special attention to chronic diseases. In the treatment of catarrh, eye, ear, throat and lung diseases, he has had a large and successful experience.

Circuit Court Proceedings.

At the special term of the Circuit Court held this week the following cases were disposed of:

Harvesting from Hayes—By Ours.

Everything quiet in Hayes.

The light-houses are in operation once more.

An emery wheel burst in Burgess saw mill last Friday. Happily no one was injured, but Thomas Blake met with a narrow escape.

Mr. Fuller, of Charlevoix, is supplying our farmers with the Kalamazoo spring tooth harrow.

A. I. Deneal, of Harbor Springs, was in town Monday looking after his farm on section 23.

A. Ross, Esq., is improving his premises with new fences and farm gates.

There will be a literary entertainment at Fairgrove on Wednesday evening, May 2, for the benefit of the Sunday school.

A Sunday school will be organized at Lakeview on Sunday, May 6.

We have better weather prospects in Hayes than Wiggins.

Our farmers have commenced sowing wheat and oats. We are a few days behind the farmers in the southern part of the State, and only a few.

From the Block Whistlers.

The ideal recreation engages the mind as well as the body,—is mental as well as muscular. More specifically, it combines lively expectancy with intense activity. More particularly still, it combines these elements, expectancy and activity, in no definite proportion. A certain shock of surprise is necessary, that the pulse of pleasure beat high. The ideal recreation means one other requirement,—it results in something, a clear brain, a strong back, a light step, a big fish.

What other recreation better meets these requirements than fishing for black bass? Surely no other involves a livelier expectancy. At your lightly weighted boat, thrown far out upon the water, slowly sinks into dark depths whence you have pulled many a noble fish before, imagination, pictures a whole school of the beautiful devils playing about the leaping mackerel, while the smaller restrain their appetites only from fear of the big fellow who may take a notion, not merely to the bait but also to the youngster that dashes and leaps him. These imaginative tales, explication to the highest pitch. But the instant the fish is struck, activity must be intense indeed, to keep pace with the plunging and surging, and runs, and turns, and leaps, and all the other devices the big fish knows so well for breaking the slender silk thread or the pliant rod that restrains its liberty.

Such was my recreation on the last days of last August. Two days before the one of which I write, I had been upon the "happy fishing ground" of Pine Lake, and had returned to Charlevoix with some large bass. At the store where I had hired my skiff a young man caught sight of my fish, and excitedly asked me to consider taking him to his sail boat, to the place where I had caught them. The skiff was ready, and I agreed to go with him Saturday, at 9 A. M.

Saturday morning, then, at the appointed hour we were ready.

Nothing seemed combining for a day of unmixed pleasure.

"Beautiful situation," the pride of Northern Michigan, is Charlevoix, on the neck of land between its gem harbor, Round Lake, and the great lake, which here opens fifty or sixty miles due north. A channel of a few rods in length connects Round Lake with Pine Lake, which extends about fifteen miles into the interior. Pine Lake sends off, about five miles from Charlevoix, a branch, called South Arm, nearly as long as the main lake.

A greater sheet of water than Pine Lake would be hard to find.

Furthermore, I will be frank enough to say, that the respect for my powers as a fisherman, implied in the invitation, combined to a certain complacency, which with vain mortals, is a favorable background for enjoyment.

I might mention other particulars, such as the fact, that the trip wouldn't cost me a cent; that I was proud against sea-sickness; that I should doubtless see some of the splendor of the lake, but there was plenty of lunch in my basket, plenty of bait in my bucket. That last item, the bait, deserves further notice. Said bait consisted of green worms, and any one would be in a frame of mind to sympathize with the old man in her surprise and disappointment when she learned that the "hopper" she was so sure was here, but him try to get in enough of the lively insect in question for a fishing trip. "Then, too, he will understand the peace of mind with which I thought of that bottle of bait."

But I must confess to an unpleasant distrust in the shallow, expanse in which we were to fish. Of such men I have seen a hundred horrors. My horror, however, was not intense enough to deter me from embarking.

Our course was south of east, and the distance contemplated was about six miles,—five miles to Ironston, a furnace village, situated on what is called "the Neck" of the lake, and then a mile through the Neck to the South Arm, our fishing ground.

At first the wind blew from the south west, and so hard that we began to think we should reach our destination in little more than an hour. As the breeze freshened, and the boat heeled over more and more, fell in with the fact that I was on the windward, and at last as I could. My vigorous exertion to that end soon became unnecessary, however, for the breeze died away, and began blowing fitful and weak from the east. It must be a long time, indeed, that would take us into Ironston.

In the meantime I had told the captain of another fishing-ground, much nearer and more accessible with the wind then blowing.

I made no suggestion, but was pleased when he proposed to give up the more distant ground and try the nearer. Accordingly the boat was put about, and we soon reached the place I had in mind. There poked head and other aquatic plants grew and the water was shallow, but the bank for a quarter of a mile or more. At my word the anchor was dropped, and we began to rig our rods. Useless pains! The anchor, in my opinion, wouldn't hold. We were soon among the rushes. There was but one thing to do,—up with the anchor, up with the helm, and run along the shore through the rushes, until we could strike out into the lake again. We then gave our former anchorage another trial.

This time the anchor held. But we had let out so much anchor line that we were too near the rushes and in shallow water. So I seized the line, and tried to pull the boat out into deeper water; but, instead of reaching the boat, I started the anchor, and again we began drifting shoreward.

At this the captain gave order to—cast anchor. All fell to with alacrity, but as we were so near the rushes, the anchor wouldn't hold. The anchor held. The fishing ground, was accepted. The boat was true only in part. The captain, disguised with his boat, lost all soul for black bass. As for me, however, I was determined that my hoppers, secured with such pains, should not be wasted.

Accordingly I hired a skiff, and, as usual on such trips, hitched to the stern of the steamer.

Then I told the captain of the steamer what I had done, and was assured it was "all right." But even captains are sometimes mistaken, and this was one of the occasions. I was deeply absorbed in rigging my tackle, when I heard some one say, "Just look at that boat!" The remark was not addressed to me, but, for all that, I looked and saw that the steamer, in backing off from the dock, had crowded my boat under the water and galled it.

A friendly fellow passenger helped me draw it alongside, and held it there, while I stood upon the beam, which, running around the steamer at the water's edge, serves as a bumper, and heeled out the boat with my minnow bucket. All this time the steamer was moving across Round Lake, and I discovered that we were approaching a point upon the same side where my boat was drawn up. There seemed but one way to save it from being crushed: I let it slip back to the stern.

Then I resumed my baiting with perfect composure, as I supposed. It seems, however, that the steamer did not run up alongside the dock, but only touched it with her bow, took on a passenger and backed off.

Of course my skiff was caught again, and filled instantly. For some reason my friend had dropped the chain. To save the boat from the steamer's screw I stooped to the water, and, while clinging to the steamer with one, seized the boat with the other. I held the boat with my hand, the steamer slipping, but I was determined not to let go of the boat, and presume I should have been just stupidly obstinate enough to go down with it had not another fellow passenger run to my help. At my request he seized the arm with which I clung to the steamer. With my other hand I got hold of the boat chain and held the skiff's prow so high that the stern of the steamer ran under it.

When the steamer fairly (about 10 p. m.) left me at my fishing ground, the skiff was so nearly free from water that a few minutes' diligent baiting secured it quite, and I was ready for work.

The bass were ready, too. It seemed, as I soon struck a three-pounder, and this one, with others still larger, kept me busy till the steamer returned. I'll attempt a description of the capture of but one,—a four-pounder, set because he was the largest, but because he was the most active.

I was anchored in thirty-five feet of water, as deep as my anchor rope would command. Outside the bottom dropped off very suddenly to a great depth. I was fishing in this deep water with, perhaps, twenty yards of line.

Inside there was a mass of pickered weed and other aquatic plants. The fish in question exhibited his bait with a dash, and he hardly needed the sharp snap. I gave to set the hook in. His first move was characteristic. Instantly he struck for the surface, and, dorsal fin erect and beating, into the air with a spring that said, "I thought here I am caught, but you are!" I never saw another such leap by a black bass. He put all his strength into it, and, I am sure, went four feet into the air. From the first example of his vigor and spirit I was prepared for a grand rush. I was not disappointed.

My habit is to keep a bait line on my fish so that he rarely makes a run of thirty yards; but this one carried out full fifty yards, springing for every inch, and, at the end, rose rapidly, making a grand leap. This run was made sternward of the boat, but still in deep water. Then he returned instantly over the same course, and with such speed that I had to let up my multiplying reel with desperate energy to take up the line.

When just opposite me he turned and darted under the boat toward the weeds. Of course "gave him the butt," and my first thought was not to let him have a inch of line, but his fierce tug convinced me that the chances were good that my rod would catch up like a jack-knife, so I let the line slip slowly under my finger.

Unfortunately for my chances, I was standing at the bow, and he made his rush under the boat, so that I could not pass my line under that and without fouling the anchor rope. For a few minutes the line saved and hissed ominously on the boat's side, and I was in a quandary, and got out of the predicament. But, meanwhile, the bass had buried himself deep among the weeds and seemed inclined to stay there. However, he was not so contented, and I saw him start up and dash again, and once more he rose in his wrath. This time the thirty yards of line were hung, as it were, with a waiting air. Another rush under the boat carried him into deep water.

And now began some tactics on his part that have more than once proved successful in my experience with black bass. Swimming near the surface, he kept turning on the hook this way and that, rolling, too, first to one side, then to other. No other device was so successful as such anxiety. But this fish was too securely hooked to escape even by these tactics. Twice after this he darted under the boat, but was too slowly freed out to reach the weeds. A third time was as feeble that I drew him to the surface, and, building a landing-net in his course, gently lifted him in out of the water.

This was but one of many tussles with big fish that afternoon. While I engaged in one of them a nature came paddling by, but stopped and looked on, full of sympathy and surprise. When I finally "scooped up" my fish he looks out: "Well, I'd rather fish than eat any day, and I've been fishing for you for years, but I never caught no such fish as that."

When, at 5 P. M., the steamer returned, I had secured all the fish and all the sport I wanted. The surprise of my fellow-passengers that I had caught such fish in Pine Lake,—and I caught them with such bait and such tackle,—contributed to restore that complacency which, it seemed to me, was more appropriate at the close, than at the opening, of a day of such vicissitudes.

But the climax was reserved until, on Sunday, with my line, the steamer at Charlevoix, where I had hired my skiff, I met the captain of the sail boat. After examining and admiring my fish, "Ray," said he, "do you want to go again Monday?"

T. R. WILKINSON.

The law authorizing the issue of the three-cent postal note took effect March 3rd, and the Postmaster General directed by it to get its provisions into operation within six months. It is thought that the postal note will be issued on the 1st of July. The proposed postal note is described as being about the size of a green-back. At the right hand are two columns giving the month of the year, and the date of twelve years beginning with the present. At the left hand are three columns of figures.—One, representing dollars is numbered up to 4; the second, representing dimes, is numbered up to 9; the third, representing cents, is also numbered up to 9, and each series ends with a cipher.

The note is far smaller than $5. The postmaster at the office issuing the note will punch the month and the year, the number of dollars, number of dimes, and number of cents, in their respective columns thus presenting any alteration at the amount of date. By this system the postal note can be issued for any sum from one cent up to $499. These notes will be for sale at the post-offices the same as postage stamps. The note will be payable in the bearer at any time within three months from the last day of issue. The body of the note is a form stating the office at which it is issued and the office to which it is sent. When paid the person obtaining payment puts his signature upon the note.

The postal note is commended as a matter of convenience. It is not as well hedged in for security as the postal order, but is sufficiently secure for popular use. Its convenience is as a means of transmitting small amounts, for which postage stamps have usually been used, since the fractional currency was retired. The postal note has been in use in Great Britain for two years, and commends itself strongly. The system now adopted in the United States is better than that of Great Britain. The cost of the note, for any amount from one cent to $4.99, will be three cents.

inducements to prevail upon him to do so.
—Will C. Graves, son of Rev. Dr. Graves, of Grand Rapids, and brother of Dr. S. O.
Graves, of this place, will spend the summer on the farm of Hon. J. S. Dixon. He was attending college at Rochester, N. Y., and was compelled to leave on account of ill health. He arrived Wednesday.
—The East Jordan folks are taking the preliminary steps toward the incorporation of the two sides of the head into a village, and last week took a census. The Enterprise says that they found 100 on the South Arm side and 300 on the East Jordan side. East Jordan is making rapid strides in growth, and her citizens show a very commendable spirit of enterprise.

FRANK H. WOOD, Proprietor.

There are several very fine hotels in Charlevoix. One of the best is the Hotel de la Ville, which is a fine building and has a large number of rooms. It is a very comfortable place to stay, and the food is very good. It is a very popular place to stay, and it is a very good place to stay.

Charlevoix Sentinel.

CHARLEVOIX, JUNE 20, 1883.

WILLIAMS A. WHITEHEAD, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

Gov. Riggs enters at Jackson July fourth.

Ohio Republicans are confident of victory.

The new postage stamp is of a metallic red color.

There are many dead laws on the statute books of Michigan.

The Pennsylvania Republicans will unite, and that means victory.

The State fair will be held in Detroit this year in September.

There are 110 posts of the Grand Army of the Republic in this State.

There actually seem to be people who think Tilden will have a home for the presidency.

Brighton Young, son of his father, and is an interview at Denver that he expected 25,000 Mormon converts this year.

At Denver over 5,000 people are out of work, and business of all kinds is exceedingly depressed.

A printing house for the blind, located by Kentucky, and maintained by the general government, was dedicated at Louisville last week.

The current number of Harper's Weekly has an article written by George William Curtis, highly complimentary to President Arthur. This is praise indeed.

New York Republicans have agreed upon a plan for party re-organization, based on a new election in November.

As an illustration of the extent of our country it is noticeable that this year new wheat was harvested in Oregon a week before the ice went out of Moosehead lake in Maine.

Postmaster Abbott was obliged to return to the Post Office at Washington a personal message received at Niagara Falls last week and addressed to "The Adorable Unknown."

It is said there is a movement on foot among prominent Grand Army men to have memorial day changed to June 30, as the weather is at that time more settled, and flowers more beautiful.

The "golden jubilee" never knew a finer time to come in a wet season. It is the drought that kills, and not the gentle rain. But it may be a little early yet for congratulating our weather.

It is reported that the Kerry household have disposed of a portion of their mining property in Utah to English capitalists for $2,000,000, and are "on their feet" again. Many friends of the ex-miner will rejoice to hear the report confirmed.

Geo. W. Pack, editor of Pack's Book and his Pa, and other works, was formerly a representative in the 24th congress, from 1856 to 1857, from the second district of Michigan.

General Grant thinks that such state should have charge of its own liquor and tobacco tax, to do as it pleases with it, and that the whole internal revenue system should be abolished.

The census shows that 15,000,000 of our 50,000,000 people are foreigners, of which foreigners 10,000,000 are Irish. These are round numbers, but the proportions hold good.

The largest lumberholder in the United States is Mr. Vanerburgh, who will receive the interest on $20,000,000, a year of ten per cent, to be paid $2,000,000, but he has disposed of $10,000,000 for some purpose. Mrs. A. T. Stewart has about $80,000,000. Jay Gould $17,000,000. Mr. Fisk of California, $15,000,000. The Hollands hold $20,000,000 of our bonds.

The new issue rate does not take effect till the first day of October, and after that date later postage will be two cents for each half ounce or fractional part thereof between all points in the United States. The rate will then be the same on drop letters and all others. No changes have been made in rates on other classes of matter.

A court in Ontario has made the extraordinary decision that divorce granted in the United States are not valid in Canada. A woman divorced from her husband in Missouri has obtained a judgment for $10,000 from her husband, who was domiciled in Ontario, where he was wanted to answer for the same, which she regarded as an unparalleled affront.

The Chicago Journal advances the following as among the specific remedies for promoting virtue and the application of law:

1. Amend the laws and establish the almost precedents which almost compel the court to surrender everything to the criminal and making but the costs to the people.

2. Make it possible to obtain an instant grand jury, and to raise the twelve jurors a verdict.

3. Let the court and not the attorney, decide upon the qualification of jurors.

4. Limit the time of the lawyers for addressing the jury.

5. Abolish the pardoning power.

6. Educate the people to believe that the 200 men who hang a man are each one guilty of the revolting crime of murder.

The Indiana Supreme Court has decided that a married woman cannot enter into partnership with her husband or any other person for the purpose of carrying on a partnership business.

A law of steamboats established lately between Ogdensburg, N. Y., and Chicago, consists of six vessels, whose entire capacity is as great as that of sixteen of the largest vessels that could run between these points before the Welland Canal was enlarged. Another vessel will be added to the line this month, which will increase the carrying capacity to that of twenty-four of the old-line boats. The capacity of one of the new boats is 67,000 bushels.

A correspondent of the Buffalo Express writes that Americans to devote their energies to founding a granite new island on some suitable island. He claims that the country need to a classic republic like through a wholesale transfer from the Hawaiian islands. The objection to this scheme is that the Hawaiian would not object to it. What is needed is a free island right under the nose of the British lion, and which would from time to time give that royal beast a stirring up.

The question of Presidential candidates for next year is discussed in a desultory way by the Republican papers. In Pennsylvania, Illinois has an established fact. It is the election of delegates to the next National Convention were to take place now he would have a solid representation from that State. Outside of Pennsylvania, Edwards appears to have the largest support. "Ben" Harrison's home seems to have expanded, at least for the present. The Omaha Republican leader says that he is probably as strong a man as could be nominated. There is, however, no attempt to push the topic of any kind. The party papers understand the political situation too well to attempt anything of the kind. And that is where they have the advantage over the Democratic organ.

The Democrats of Ohio have nominated Judge Hendley of Cincinnati as their candidate for Governor. The Republicans of that State ought to try to get his celebrated opinion on the Oregon electoral case and circulate it as a campaign document. The Judge was the only lawyer in the United States who was able to construct a legal defense of Covens' remarkable feat of organizing himself into an electoral college and casting the vote of Oregon for Tilden and Rutherford.

CHARLEVOIX, JULY 6, 1883.

WILLIAM A. SMITH,
EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

Northwestern University.

Published for the Proprietor, Charlesvoix, Mich.

This institution has just passed a crisis in its history. One of the few western universities recognized by the best citizens of the east, its members have been crippled for some years by the weight of a debt of $200,000. By reason of this $200,000 have been expended annually in paying interest, which otherwise would have been devoted to its own specific work. Since the election of Rev. Joseph Cummings, D.D., LL.D., to the Presidency, the entire debt has been cancelled. Every dollar has been paid. The property of the university, now valued at one and a half millions of dollars, is rapidly increasing in value, and shortly will yield an increased income of over $20,000, and will make this school one of the richest in America.

The recent meeting of the board of trustees showed that the university was never in a more promising condition. The number of students in all the departments were represented as follows: Undergraduates, 140; students in art, 35; students in music, 175; medical students, 175; law students, 125; preparatory students, 240. Added to these the number of students in training at Garrett Biblical Institute (the theological department) and the entire number in attendance last year was 740.

The director of the Conservatory of Music, Professor Oren E. Locke, reports this year the most prosperous since its inception. The conservatory was founded in 1872 as a distinct part of the university, with only eight students. It has reached its present high standing by adhering strictly to the highest work, and by offering superior facilities for a thorough musical training.

The Women's College, a large and elegant building, situated less than five minutes' walk from University Hall, offers for the coming year unusual attractions to young ladies. A lady physician will occupy rooms at the college, and the erection this summer of a new hydraulic elevator will combine the advantages of health and comfort to the medical students. The preparatory school is well equipped in any one of four courses of study. Prof. H. P. Hays, the Principal, is a man of broad culture, an excellent educator, a judicious adviser, a sincere and earnest Christian.

Commencement exercises this year were full of interest. The Kirk prize of $100 for excellence in oratory was awarded to John C. Chandler, a son of the late Rev. Henry Chandler, D.D., Professor of New Testament at Garrett Biblical Institute. On Thursday, June 22, President Cummings conferred degrees on the following number of persons: Bachelor of Arts, C. Chandler; Bachelor of Philosophy, H. Chandler; Bachelor of Science, J. Chandler; Bachelor of Divinity, H. Chandler; Bachelor of Theology, H. Chandler; Doctor of Medicine, H. Chandler; Doctor of Law, H. Chandler; Master of Arts, H. Chandler; Master of Literature, H. Chandler.

The future promise of an early day the erection of new library and preparatory buildings, the enlargement of the corps of professors and instructors (now numbering sixty-three), and a decrease in tuition and incidental rates for students. From the time of its origin, with a faculty whose scholarship is recognized throughout the country, situated on the shore of Lake Michigan, in the most cultured and religious suburb of Chicago, this great university must draw students from all parts of the continent. May the persistent and untiring efforts of its friends be crowned with lasting prosperity.

M. A. C.
Bismarck, Ill., July 2, 1883.

Sir: Alexander Hall, just returned from England, does not give the Canadians who desire independence much hope. He says that the time has never been reached and that England will always appoint Governors General. To which the Hon. Mr. Thompson remarks: "But Sir, Alexander is altogether too positive. Time has brought about great changes in the independence of Canada. That it may bring about the same change in the United States as was the independence of the colonies."

Now that Egypt is the victim of a cholera epidemic, which is spreading rapidly, there is danger that the frightened and timid citizens may carry the pestilence to other lands, in Europe and Asia, and it may even be brought over the Atlantic. The ravages of that dread disease may not only cause appalling deaths in the vicinity of Alexandria, but also in the distant parts of the world.

Cholera meeting at Pontiac commences July 24, and closes August 10.

Northwestern University.

This institution has just passed a crisis in its history. One of the few western universities recognized by the best citizens of the east, its members have been crippled for some years by the weight of a debt of $200,000. By reason of this $200,000 have been expended annually in paying interest, which otherwise would have been devoted to its own specific work. Since the election of Rev. Joseph Cummings, D.D., LL.D., to the Presidency, the entire debt has been cancelled. Every dollar has been paid. The property of the university, now valued at one and a half millions of dollars, is rapidly increasing in value, and shortly will yield an increased income of over $20,000, and will make this school one of the richest in America.

The recent meeting of the board of trustees showed that the university was never in a more promising condition. The number of students in all the departments were represented as follows: Undergraduates, 140; students in art, 35; students in music, 175; medical students, 175; law students, 125; preparatory students, 240. Added to these the number of students in training at Garrett Biblical Institute (the theological department) and the entire number in attendance last year was 740.

The director of the Conservatory of Music, Professor Oren E. Locke, reports this year the most prosperous since its inception. The conservatory was founded in 1872 as a distinct part of the university, with only eight students. It has reached its present high standing by adhering strictly to the highest work, and by offering superior facilities for a thorough musical training.

The Women's College, a large and elegant building, situated less than five minutes' walk from University Hall, offers for the coming year unusual attractions to young ladies. A lady physician will occupy rooms at the college, and the erection this summer of a new hydraulic elevator will combine the advantages of health and comfort to the medical students. The preparatory school is well equipped in any one of four courses of study. Prof. H. P. Hays, the Principal, is a man of broad culture, an excellent educator, a judicious adviser, a sincere and earnest Christian.

Commencement exercises this year were full of interest. The Kirk prize of $100 for excellence in oratory was awarded to John C. Chandler, a son of the late Rev. Henry Chandler, D.D., Professor of New Testament at Garrett Biblical Institute. On Thursday, June 22, President Cummings conferred degrees on the following number of persons: Bachelor of Arts, C. Chandler; Bachelor of Philosophy, H. Chandler; Bachelor of Science, J. Chandler; Bachelor of Divinity, H. Chandler; Bachelor of Theology, H. Chandler; Doctor of Medicine, H. Chandler; Doctor of Law, H. Chandler; Master of Arts, H. Chandler; Master of Literature, H. Chandler.

The future promise of an early day the erection of new library and preparatory buildings, the enlargement of the corps of professors and instructors (now numbering sixty-three), and a decrease in tuition and incidental rates for students. From the time of its origin, with a faculty whose scholarship is recognized throughout the country, situated on the shore of Lake Michigan, in the most cultured and religious suburb of Chicago, this great university must draw students from all parts of the continent. May the persistent and untiring efforts of its friends be crowned with lasting prosperity.

Sir: Alexander Hall, just returned from England, does not give the Canadians who desire independence much hope. He says that the time has never been reached and that England will always appoint Governors General. To which the Hon. Mr. Thompson remarks: "But Sir, Alexander is altogether too positive. Time has brought about great changes in the independence of Canada. That it may bring about the same change in the United States as was the independence of the colonies."

Now that Egypt is the victim of a cholera epidemic, which is spreading rapidly, there is danger that the frightened and timid citizens may carry the pestilence to other lands, in Europe and Asia, and it may even be brought over the Atlantic. The ravages of that dread disease may not only cause appalling deaths in the vicinity of Alexandria, but also in the distant parts of the world.

Cholera meeting at Pontiac commences July 24, and closes August 10.

"Domestic census" etc. "How much additional taxes would Michigan have to pay if all custom duties were abolished and the government collected its revenue by direct taxation from the people?"

During the year ended June 30 the amount collected from customs was over 215 million dollars ($215,054,510). This divided per capita among the whole population of 1880, which was 50,155,783, would make $4.25 for each man, woman, and child in the country. The population of Michigan in 1880 was 1,535,997. Her share, if the amounts assessed against the states per capita of population, would be 1,535,997 multiplied by $4.25, which is $6,506,982.25.

Let us take Huron county in this state for illustration. The population of that county in 1880 was 5,620, and in that year they paid taxes as follows: State tax $1,030, county tax $4,254, city, township, village and school tax $11,510. Total taxes for all purposes $15,794.

A direct tax on the total State of $24.25 per capita of the population of Huron county, which would be necessary if the custom duties were abolished, would make good the amount collected by customs last year, would leave for Huron county $16,116.75, provided that tax of 1 cent per capita of population.

That is more than 25 times as much as Huron county paid for taxes in 1880. Under this direct system of taxation the farmers of Huron county will have to pay the United States $26 for every $1 they now pay for state taxes. And for every dollar they now pay for tax of all kinds, state, county, village, school and all other purposes, they will have to pay the United States very nearly $2.60. Certainly the present system is not so oppressive as this would be.

If, however, the tax needed should be levied on the states in proportion to their population, and the entire "dead" collected by tax on the assessed valuation of property, the share of Huron county would be $6,001, or nearly six times the amount of its state tax and more than the amount of its state and county tax combined. To raise $6,556,982 for the government will require a tax of 1.27 cents on each dollar of the present assessed county valuation of real and personal property in the state. Michigan county under this rule would pay $253,156, which is nearly double the amount now paid in that county for state county, village, school and all other taxes. Thus the farmers of Michigan would pay $1 in taxes where they now pay $1.—Post and Tribune.

A Trip by Steamer Toledo to Buffalo - Sagami Falls.

On Thursday morning, July 15th, the tug Higgins went along side the gangway of the propeller Toledo of the Charlevoix river, transferring to that steamer about a dozen passengers for down lake, and the writer himself being one of the number.

There is nothing in the trip of on the lake that would furnish material for anything particularly interesting in these columns. The vessel was made in the Straits, and the passage of Lake Huron was an event.

The Toledo had about a hundred passengers, embracing the usual kaleidoscopic display of human nature, the romping children, the early and nervous, the middle-aged, the dignified and talkative, the old man with the cane, the family guide with the "old Mother Hubbard" dress, the young things clad with the gaiters and cigarette, the courteous captain who tells stories, the solid looking mechanic out for his vacation, and the young married couple whose mutual admiration is the glory of the steamer, and whose demonstration is so convincing to those fellow passengers as to lead them to Sagami Bay. They all come together at the dinner hour from staterooms and deck, from the "cabin" and "stateroom," filling the long table of the dining-cabin from the "captain's end" to the smoking room door.

The passage down was an exceptionally fine one, nothing occurring to disturb a stomach save an occasional stomach ache, a "stomach" place on the after deck. The passage of the St. Clair falls by night and we were that most interesting part of the trip down. At daylight we reached Buffalo, and after a brief stop we go strolling down the beautiful beach, and, lively with craft of all descriptions, into Lake Erie. About noon the smoke of Cleveland is pointed out, as we off our stateroom door, and soon after the lights of Maumee, the home of the martyr Garfield, loom up in the distance.

Sunday morning we go on deck and to our left we see the entrance to Toledo canal, and before us the spires and elevators of Buffalo take shape out of the clouds in the distance. At nine o'clock we tie up to the shore, and then comes the late taking, the breaking up of short acquaintances, the gathering of "grape" and "shoe" stages and bundles, the kissing and good-byes of the women, with a word like the setting of many waters, running the gamut of 4-10 back doors and loud runners, the assumption of reverence of them, and the throwing into Buffalo creek of tinorous mors by the effort, and we too adieu to the grand old steamer Toledo.

We cannot say enough in praise of the Toledo—always popular, but doubly so since the always popular captain, James Wilson, and several others, have been transferred to her. With the skill and experience of Captain Wilson, passengers always feel safe, but added to these essential qualities are those which make the gentleman-always courteous and obliging, patient and long suffering, among so many different phases of humanity, he is indeed the model skipper. This gentleman in all that goes to make a popular officer is Edward Jackson. Under his supervision the cabin are all that could be asked by the vessel's officers. It is an undoubted pleasure to travel upon the propeller Toledo.

At ten o'clock we boarded an excursion train to Niagara Falls, that greatest of all American natural wonders. We reached it in an hour, and as we stepped upon the platform we heard the ringing of the bells, and a voice shouting "Welcome!" Here an opportunity occurred again of riding the earth of a few thousand more back friends, but we had had blood enough for one day, and after leaving the bureau of these and meeting the proprietors of the hotel we went directly and immediately on our way through the crowd of admiring thousands, to the nearest point where a view of the falls could be obtained, and that was through Prospect Park to Prospect House, overlooking the American Falls.

The grandest of this view cannot be adequately described. We could only exclaim "Oh! how wonderful are the works!" The mighty, roaring flood, falling in turbulent sheets over two hundred feet to the foaming chasm beneath, the rainbow in the clouds of spray, and the falling and precipitous rocks upon either side, afford a view that is truly sublime, a feeling of terror and sublimity. We gazed long upon the scene, and then, turning these emotions to rest, and looking over the falls, we noticed a party of five in a boat, and went down the river below Suspension Bridge to the Westport Rapids.

And by the way, when we were to climb this bridge has been closed to the boats as almost one of the most wonders of the world. Perhaps it was once, but that is an age of progress, and now it is a very ordinary structure. There is a new one just above it, for we have that in time, and it is a very different thing. The old bridge was made of stone, and the new one is of iron, and is a very different thing. The old bridge was made of stone, and the new one is of iron, and is a very different thing.

Sunday morning we go on deck and to our left we see the entrance to Toledo canal, and before us the spires and elevators of Buffalo take shape out of the clouds in the distance. At nine o'clock we tie up to the shore, and then comes the late taking, the breaking up of short acquaintances, the gathering of "grape" and "shoe" stages and bundles, the kissing and good-byes of the women, with a word like the setting of many waters, running the gamut of 4-10 back doors and loud runners, the assumption of reverence of them, and the throwing into Buffalo creek of tinorous mors by the effort, and we too adieu to the grand old steamer Toledo.

We cannot say enough in praise of the Toledo—always popular, but doubly so since the always popular captain, James Wilson, and several others, have been transferred to her. With the skill and experience of Captain Wilson, passengers always feel safe, but added to these essential qualities are those which make the gentleman-always courteous and obliging, patient and long suffering, among so many different phases of humanity, he is indeed the model skipper. This gentleman in all that goes to make a popular officer is Edward Jackson. Under his supervision the cabin are all that could be asked by the vessel's officers. It is an undoubted pleasure to travel upon the propeller Toledo.

At ten o'clock we boarded an excursion train to Niagara Falls, that greatest of all American natural wonders. We reached it in an hour, and as we stepped upon the platform we heard the ringing of the bells, and a voice shouting "Welcome!" Here an opportunity occurred again of riding the earth of a few thousand more back friends, but we had had blood enough for one day, and after leaving the bureau of these and meeting the proprietors of the hotel we went directly and immediately on our way through the crowd of admiring thousands, to the nearest point where a view of the falls could be obtained, and that was through Prospect Park to Prospect House, overlooking the American Falls.

The grandest of this view cannot be adequately described. We could only exclaim "Oh! how wonderful are the works!" The mighty, roaring flood, falling in turbulent sheets over two hundred feet to the foaming chasm beneath, the rainbow in the clouds of spray, and the falling and precipitous rocks upon either side, afford a view that is truly sublime, a feeling of terror and sublimity. We gazed long upon the scene, and then, turning these emotions to rest, and looking over the falls, we noticed a party of five in a boat, and went down the river below Suspension Bridge to the Westport Rapids.

And by the way, when we were to climb this bridge has been closed to the boats as almost one of the most wonders of the world. Perhaps it was once, but that is an age of progress, and now it is a very ordinary structure. There is a new one just above it, for we have that in time, and it is a very different thing. The old bridge was made of stone, and the new one is of iron, and is a very different thing.

Albany—Down the Hudson River for East Steamer—New York City.

Leaving Niagara Fall's Sunday evening for New York City, we arrived in Albany the next morning in time for lunch.

Fast, after which, having two hours before the departure of the New York steamer, we made a hurried exploration of the capital city of the Empire State.

Albany is situated upon a hill, the streets ascending quite abruptly from the Hudson, and are fairly shaded by large trees on either side. The summit of the hill are the public buildings, the most prominent of which is the State Capitol, yet unfinished. It is a grand pile of granite of mixed architecture, immense proportions, the interior being finished in the most costly and sumptuous manner.

The old capital, but a small stone tower, and now an inn, is an excellent landmark under the shadow of its grand successor.

Its old-fashioned airy looking dome has long since been livelier of the wooden pinnacle which surrounded it, and it has been covered with dust in the attic. We were shown a fine illustration of American progress than when we gazed upon these two buildings—the past and the present combined in these two structures—were of them the proud temple of the laws and liberty of a great commonwealth, now turned over to the money changers—abandoned by its state. The edifice is a fine model of the wealth and dignity of the western state in the union—no beautiful as a phantasm in the blue sky, and as a building as a whole. Albany is a beautiful city.

We descended the hill to the station,
dock, and having a half hour to spare walked along the river bank, which they traverse several fine monuments. We passed the St. Johns and walked through ver-spacious and magnificent edifices and cathedral. Also in 1770, the city has three cathedral, and from 20 miles per hour.
She is one of the finest on the river.

We boarded the steamer Albany, purchased a ticket for New York, and were about ascending the stairs to the main saloon, when we met two to four a passenger on the Hudson from Detroit to New York—Mr. James Morris. He was a New York merchant, and was on his way home after a two weeks' vacation, spent on a tour of the lakes. In the company down the Hudson and subsequently in the city we were in twenty-two hours, what a week would not have given us if it were.

The steamer came from her pier and we were about heading down the "American River" at the rate of eighteen miles per hour. We met innumerable steamers, and many schooner boats having very large loads of coal, lumber and other freight. The scenery the first thirty or forty miles is particularly romantic, yet after many fine landscape views—
the farms, large orchards and fields emerge. The houses are numerous, and large bridges are continually crossing and going in the bank of supplying the New York market with their produce.

Some of the finest scenery of the Catskill Mountains appear on our right in the distance, and the shore lines begin to assume the picturesque beauty which has made the Hudson famous the world over. Beautiful wooded hills, upon the sides of which are perched tiny country residences, and pretty little villages nestled down upon the river under the shadow of the hills are frequent pictures in this grand panorama. The scenery becomes grander and more beautiful as we speed down the river, and now we are in the Catskills.
The ever common weary feeling upon the scenery is washed away, and we are scarcely weary when we reach Albany.

We met a steamer, but we pass each other like a flash. The first time we saw the Hudson River, it was a fine sight.

CHAS. A. ARTHUR.

It seems likely that Charles A. Arthur will be his own successor in the Post-Dispatch place. And this conclusion is all the more confirmed by a consideration of the circumstances of which the recent transfer of the Post-Dispatch to Arthur is a result. He has done more things than have tended to pave his way to a re-nomination. The principal thing he has done is, he has made a good friend. He has been ready, firm, honest, dignified, courteous to his opponents, conciliatory toward all factions, and has been under the influence of no man nor set of men. No President ever did more to be commended as he has been commended for a presidential nomination. He has been a part of the nation's history. He has been a part of the nation's history. He has been a part of the nation's history.

And this conclusion is reached from a combination of circumstances of which the casual reader of the direct but innocent cause. He has done several things that have tended to pave his way to a re-nomination. The principal thing he has done is, he has made a good President. He has been steady, firm, honest, dignified, courteous to his opponents, conciliatory toward his friends, and has been under the influence of no man but of himself. No President ever did more to be commended for his integrity than Arthur.

Future by Their Past.

It is the duty of the people to know the past, and to know the past is to know the future. The people of the North and South are now engaged in a struggle which will determine the future of the nation. The people of the North are fighting for the principles of liberty and justice for all, while the people of the South are fighting for the principles of slavery and oppression. The people of the North are fighting for the principles of the Constitution, while the people of the South are fighting for the principles of the slave. The people of the North are fighting for the principles of the Union, while the people of the South are fighting for the principles of secession. The people of the North are fighting for the principles of the Republic, while the people of the South are fighting for the principles of monarchy. The people of the North are fighting for the principles of the future, while the people of the South are fighting for the principles of the past.

The people of the North are fighting for the principles of the future, while the people of the South are fighting for the principles of the past. ANOTHER FIRE.
This time the fire, on South Ave., is added to the list. Seats on mill, on South Ave., after being the last, was totally destroyed by fire at about 10 o'clock Sunday morning. The boiler had about 100 lbs. of steam and the fire was confined to the mill. No insurance.

We are pleased to state that our census taker, the East Indian, Fotopopie will again make his appearance in about two weeks.

A Charlevoix correspondent to the Detroit Evening News, reports that the Michigan Central ought to build a 30 mile branch to Charlevoix.

The Charlevoix on her last trip, carried to Chicago a large amount of northern Michigan evergreen for holiday decorations.

There was talk of organizing a debating club at Charlevoix last Saturday night, but nobody turned out. We propose the club tackle the following question: "Why does a red cow give white milk?"

One of our Haystacks objects to this windy weather. He says he is so large that when the wind catches him there is no bulging when he is in New York. If you are reading for friends we can find them at your doors. If you are sending them, we can find them at your doors. If you are sending them, we can find them at your doors.

The crack level last Sunday evening, was only the starting line of a young Haystack after reporting his girl home from church.

The reflection of the burning buildings in Bayne, last Sunday evening, was visible in the water. The water was so calm that the reflection was as clear as the original.

Thanksgiving with its army of rain, turkey, pumpkins, pie, with and without chutney, has come and gone in a twinkling. We are sorry that it is not remembered in the harvest's map of Charlevoix County.

London W. Brown has just completed an addition to his house at Charlevoix, and is now preparing to occupy the new building. He has added a new wing to the old house, and is now preparing to occupy the new building.

The new buildings of the Charlevoix Manufacturing Co. are now under construction. The new buildings of the Charlevoix Manufacturing Co. are now under construction.

Clippings From Local Exchanges.
The Mothers in the Watson neighborhood, two miles from here, on the Charlevoix road, held a meeting every Sunday, commencing at half past 11 a. m.—Charlevoix Journal.

The government engineer has arrived at this point to repair damage done to the railroad by the late storm, which, he says, is slight compared with damage at almost any other point on this side of Lake Michigan.—Chr. Evening News.

Charles E. Dean, for the past two years editor of the Charlevoix Journal, will take charge of the State and railroad departments of the Detroit Free Press. Mr. Dean is a warm friend to Charlevoix and is regret to see him leave the staff of the Journal.

Two-wheel Riders.
Weather prophets are thick fast now, and you have any kind you like. Rev. Vanhook, of Charlevoix, preached at a service on Sunday last at a full house. There was no service on Thanksgiving, but each ate their turkey or chicken as suited them best.

Ad. A. Manning, of the new railway trustees of the M. E. church here, was elected Sunday last, John G. Gifford was elected President, William Harris, Secretary, and G. V. Nash, Treasurer. It was decided to build the church on the pa. young lot. A subscription paper was drawn up and about $100 collected, and next spring work will be commenced and be pushed on an early completion it is to be hoped.

Bank of Charlevoix.
Half-dollars and one-dollar tickets by the thousands are in use in the market. You can find them in the market. You can find them in the market.

Bartholomew don't affect the first election in the world. You can find them in the market. You can find them in the market.

Dr. A. B. Sperry, of Detroit, will be at the Fountains City House, on Thursday and Friday, Dec. 20 and 21. The doctor makes a specialty of all forms of chronic diseases, particularly catarrh, gonorrhea, and stricture. He has a large stock of medicine always on hand. His guarantee is his reputation.

Any body wanting stores of any style, good or bad, call at W. R. Kilborn's, Peabody, where, for cash, you can buy cheap at the very lowest prices.

Metropolitan Items.
The first spelling school of the season opened at the Charlevoix school house on Friday evening, Nov. 24. The school is under the able management of Miss Cornelia.

Vanhook & Mellor are going on a large quantity of maple and basswood for the purpose of making barrels for the government.

Joe Hoss and James Layman have killed several deer this fall. After a Fox killed two in one day last week.

Forer and Ed. Devich state for Howell Sunday night, and reports say Howell has produced a pair of horses.

Shall School passed through here on his way to Chander where he has gone to investigate the facts of the Detroit case, which occurred last week Tuesday.

The 1st of Jan. will be a busy day for the Charlevoix people. The 1st of Jan. will be a busy day for the Charlevoix people.

"I've made up my mind to go for Mary at Christmas."

"Well, what is it?" asked the sponsor.

"She is worried to death about the pleasure," he replied. "I don't think she could enjoy any Christmas."

We got hold of an old envelope sent to Harry in my care, from Chicago. Mary scratched off the mail date, and together, in a disguised hand, we wrote a letter from a fictitious firm in that city and placed it in the envelope, sealed it and cast it into my letter-box, where now at fifty, or decline, I should of hands "—Present.

Potoskey.
The following good story is from the Hopedale, Pa., correspondence of the Chicago Inter-Ocean. Some of our readers will remember the account in the paper of the case of the alleged slaying of the mysterious stones referred to, but many have never seen it, and it is a good story anyway.
The Rev. W. W. Williams, of Berlin township, Wayne county, has in his possession a number of stones bearing inscriptions and dates which indicate that they were used in some mysterious transaction nearly two hundred years ago. Mr. Williams says he found them in Michigan, he lived in Potoskey, Emmet county, in 1824, and in November of that year, as he was felling a hemlock tree on his farm, on cutting into the trunk about a foot he was surprised to see bark on the tree, he split it open and found the perfect trunk of a smaller tree contained in the center. In the bark of this smaller tree were cut the figures of a triangle and the date 1854. Mr. Williams has since secured a number of these stones, and he is now endeavoring to get together the fragments of the stones which he has scattered about his farm. He has not been able to get together more than a few, but he is confident that he will be able to do so in time.

PINE LAKE IRON COMPANY.

A Top Plain Question.
Mr. E. R. March, of New York, wrote to General Beauregard in behalf of the South. The letter was very courteous and well written. It was a long one, and covered a great deal of ground. It was a very good one, and showed that the writer was a man of high intelligence and of high character. It was a very good one, and showed that the writer was a man of high intelligence and of high character.

It was a very good one, and showed that the writer was a man of high intelligence and of high character. —Mr. and Mrs. Gayles and Mrs. Merck, and Arthur, of Newwood, attended the Historic Society meeting last evening.

—The Township Treasurer, having to leave town for a few days, has left the tax roll in the hands of Geo. W. Miller, to whom taxes may be paid.

—There is at least one consoling thought about this fright winter. The hot summer season that is sure to follow will drive many more residents north than this region has ever seen.

—Still we grow! The mercury here Thursday morning was only twenty-eight degrees below zero while at Boyce City it stood at thirty-five below. And yet there are people that want the county seat moved there.

—We call attention to the new advertisement of Washburn & Ackert, in this issue. The machine shop and foundry of this firm constitute an institution of which Charlevoix may be proud. We wish them abundant success.

—The Pine Lake Iron Company, at London, desire to call attention to their superior facilities for supplying the public with general merchandise. Their well known reputation is a sufficient guaranty that they are fully up in all that is expected of first-class dealers.

—The Record figures up $152,747 improvements in Charlevoix during the year just closed. This amount includes the $12,000 for the Snyder block, $5,000 at Bay View, $10,000 for Shick's hardware, $5,000 improvements on Cable Mills, and $8,000 for Ingalls Mill.

—The meetings of the Shakespearean Club have been in interest. Monday evening twenty-five young people met with Miss Maude Forester and continued the study of Julius Caesar. The Club meets two weeks from that time with Miss Esau Buttars.

—Our Grand Army boys have at last been successful in their efforts to secure F. W. Smith to deliver his famous lecture,
"In and Out of Andersenville," 25th Tuesday evening, Feb. 5, is the date upon which it will occur. It is spoken of as one of the most exciting and interesting lectures ever delivered in this country.
Tickets for sale by any member of the Post. Reserved seats may be secured of Robert Miller, at the Bridge Street House.

—Rev. W. S. Potter is to remain at Petoskey.

—Our weather is breaking up. To-day it is raining and the mercury stands at 40°.

—The Charlevoix SENTINEL seems to grow better with each issue.—Manicled Herald.

—Charlevoix has the best telephone exchange and best paying subscribers in the state of Michigan.

—The petition for a pier head-light will be acted upon at the next meeting of the light house board.

—S. Parker has a "well furnished" fish chaunt. The same might be said of T. J.
Kirkpatrick and Chas. Chalmers.

—Helen Joseph Dancy an old resident of Northport, died at the residence of his daughter in Whitewater, Wis. last week.

—There will be at the M. V. Church for the time to come, an emphasis of the regular services. All are cordially invited.

—Byron See returned from Detroit on Saturday, and reports a good time among his comrades of the State Encampment.
G. A. R.

—Thomas Edison, the great inventor,
has faith in Michigan Summer Resorts.
Next season he will erect a cottage north of Port Huron.

—Twenty-eight degrees below zero Thursday morning. Ye gods! At this rate we can soon imagine ourselves living in the southern part of the state.

—Having heard Frank W. Smith's lecture on "In and Out of Andersenville" we sincerely recommend it and hope the Post will be encouraged by a full house.

—Gayles and Nash of Newwood paid out nearly $500 for taxes this year. This amount includes the taxes paid by them for the men engaged in their logging.

—An eight year old lad named Ketola, residing four miles from Harbor Springs, was killed by logs rolling from a sled on which he was "catching a ride."

—Small boys skate on the river which is but slightly frozen over. They run the risk of breaking through and being carried under the ice by the current to Milwaukee.

—The ladies band under the leadership of Prof. Rice are soon to begin practice on the opera, "Conquered by Kindness."
The proceeds are to go for new uniforms.

—Petoskey has a broom-brigade, sixteen or twenty strong, which is to give an exhibition drill sometime in March. Our heart goes out in sympathy with the instructor.

—Rev. J. T. Iddings has had occasion to mourn the loss of two brothers, within five weeks. One was a prominent lawyer, an ex-mayor of Dayton, Ohio, and the other a leading farmer of Missouri.

—The Detroit Journal has this to say of the silver-tongued congressman from this district. "Gen. Cutcheon's arrangement of Fitz John Porter may not have made any votes against him, but it gives the county fair notice that Michigan is not without an orator on the floor of the House."

—You will do well to read the new advertisement of Gayles & Nash, the general dealers and mill owners, who have interests in Newwood and Becks. This firm is one of the largest and most widely known of any in the county. Of unquestioned integrity and business ability they well deserve their growing trade.

—A letter from C. Y. Cook, states that since leaving here he has visited in Clare, East Saginaw, Caro, Vernon, Corunna, Wayne, Ypsilanti and Belleville. At present he and Mrs. Cook are in Reading where they will remain until March. Mr. Cook says that in a talk with well-known officials at Ann Arbor they expressed themselves to the effect that the Toledo, Ann Arbor and Charlevoix R. R. was a "fixed fact."

—Those who ought to know, if anybody does, think there is little doubt but that the river and harbor bill will pass this winter or next spring. If it does, and too much time is not occupied in making funds available or the good President does not deem it his duty to withhold appropriations, as Grant did, we may hope to receive some nourishment from the lake which will fall to Charlevoix. By the way it is reported that the engineer in charge complains appointing a local inspector here, in case the bill passes.

—The Kalamazoo Telegraph says that recently a clause of Richmond township paid the taxes on $24,000 of personal property under protest, claiming that said property was assessed to his agents and that he paid taxes through his agents in Petoskey. He claims that he placed some $37,000 in the hands of agents in Bois Lake township, Charlevoix county, and that the same was given in full accomment in that township, which under a system of assessment which seemed to have been invented by the assessor, of that township for the benefit and protection of the property of assessors, was placed on the roll at $5,000. The board of review of Richmond township, after receiving counsel, decided that the property could not be placed in agents' hands outside of the township for the purpose of taxation, but that according to the law it must be assessed where the owner resided, and decided to assess the property on the same basis as other property was assessed in Kalamazoo county.

—Thank heaven we had no potatoes in our cellar Thursday night.

—The Ladies Aid Society meet with Mrs. J. T. Iddings this afternoon.

—They say Upright, Emrey & Co. have a new advertisement this week.

—J. T. Iddings will preach at Black's School house next Sabbath at 2 o'clock P.
M.

—The remains of the late Petoskey dock were sold to the new company for five dollars.

—The young people had a very pleasant party at the Bridge Street House last Wednesday night.

—We are glad to hear that efforts are being made to carpet the entire M. V.
Church and provide cushions for the seats.

—The Charlevoix telegraph office now works direct with Muskegon, and on Wednesday was in direct communication with Big Rapids.

—One, the Petoskey druggist, they say has gone crazy. All who desire to satisfy themselves as to the truth of the rumor may do so by calling at his store.

—The Pine Lake Lumber Co. on South Arm, have paid out for logging, $2,000 weekly during the past six weeks and will continue to do so for a month to come.

—The Woman's Christian Temperance
Union will meet at the home of Mrs. H.
Berden on Friday Feb. 1st at 3 P. M.
The Ladies are cordially invited to be present.

—Prosecuting Attorney Norton says that it destroys all the congressional aspirations he ever had, to gaze on the ghastly visages of congressmen now being printed in some leading country journals.

—The Congregational Society request
us to convey their thanks to Robert Miller Esq., who furnished his house for the recent entertainment, and to all others, who so kindly assisted in making the occasion a success.

—A bill providing for the survey of Little Traverse Bay with a view to the construction of a breakwater at Petoskey was introduced in the House recently by Congressman Hatch. They should next ask Congress to aid them in building their dock.

—A Freshman recently caught in a fox trap on the shore of Lake Michigan, an eagle which measured over seven feet from tip to tip of its wings. Geo. W.
Miller purchased the bird, and has sent it to a Grand Rapids taxidermist to be stuffed and mounted.

—The Petoskey dock company has been formed with a paid up stock of $5,000.
The following are the officers. Watson Snyder president, Jas. Buckley, secretary and W. L. Curtis, treasurer. These officers, together with H. O. Rose and Thos.
Kirkland, will have entire control. Work has already been commenced.

—It is always darkest just before dawn.
The present winter, from obvious causes,
has not been as brisk in business pursuits as we would wish, and the "burden of the cry" has been "hard times" in all pursuits, except, perhaps, money-lending. Good judges of the signs of the times, however, do not detect in the business mercury any tendency to long continued or serious depression. The causes of the present uneasiness do not lie at the bedrock of our financial or business organization, but from a temporary disorganization of the surface elements of business traffic. In the Pine Lake region there is good prospect of more than usual activity in all the branches of our trade the coming season.

—Very few receipts are visible in the preparations being made for the production and shipment of all commodities which make up our natural wealth, and our maritime commerce promises to exceed in its proportions that of several years past.
This is not guess-work, but an opinion made up from conversation with business men and shippers. In short, not far ahead, we detect a rift in the clouds.

—One of the most pleasant meetings ever given by the Historical Society during the five years of its existence, was held last evening at the residence of Senator Buttars. The beauty of the parlors was enhanced by the fine showing of Miss Esau Buttars house plants, including two large calla lilies in full bloom. There were seventy members present to listen to the following programme: The first and last exercises were piano duets by Mrs.
Thomas and Miss Abbie Bennett, and the ladies sang hymns. B. W. Kane read a pleasing selection from the Ingoldby Legends. Mrs. Oscar Upright followed with the paper of the evening, being a history of the Society. W. A. Smith and Mrs. Moore sang the "Indian Serenade." After intermission, Mr. S. C. sang, by request, the solo, "When the Tide Comes In." Ed.
Permeaux gave "The Crown's Story," as a dramatization, and responded to an encore.
H. Lee Iddings read a difficult selection from Hiswatha in a manner which showed he was master of it. "The Last Hero," by A. J. Washburn, was one of the best rendered exercises of the evening, being to the G. A. R. lecture on Tuesday evening next, the Society will not meet again until the succeeding Tuesday, and then at Byron See's.

CHARLEVOIX, JAN. 30, 1884.

WILLIAM A. BELL, Editor.

W. A. BELL, Proprietor.

There are now twenty-two posts of the

G. A. R. in Michigan.

One, Charlevoix, made the "Michigan

Post" in the House on the 20th, 21st,

Purser case, and the effort is spoken of as a credit to him. Gen. Cuthbert has ability which will place him in the rank of Statesmen, as a clear-headed legislator and eloquent orator. We predict that he will be heard from.

The approximate earnings of the Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad proper for the year 1883 were $2,025,270.04, an increase of $4,300 over the year 1882.

On the Indiana road the earnings were $97,000. On the several branches the earnings were $10,000, an increase in earnings of the branch of $2,000, or a 10 percent increase on the entire road and branches of $6,300 over the previous year.

Germany gave France a tremendous thinking for an offense which she thinks that she has not committed.

But the South and when I was at over, she made France reimburse her for her primary losses. If the South had been treated in that way, instead of her being asked to pay for her losses, she would have been a more powerful ally than she is now. As a result, she is now a slave, as some of her Statesmen are now

slaves, her people would not be discussing the ways and means of raising money to pay for being slipped back into the Union.

The National Republican Convention

convened to be a very brilliant affair. All the leading Statesmen in Congress, as well as a very large number of prominent citizens, were present. The Convention was held in the city of New York, and was attended by a large number of delegates from all over the country.

DREAMS PROPHECIC!
 I was told—this President
 May be selected before his death
 by the President's hand or "Winn" will bear
 the responsibility.
 The majority of dreams ever fulfilled are those in which they are actual by contrary means and often unexpected and shall soon be. They find the subject of change in the world.
 And we need they come they approach certain things.
 These impressions as a rule are an indication that they they can be shaken off by through causes. We say of many dreams can be taken, and the old ones are still. Hence the importance of being promptly in every person.

A dark, grainy, black and white photograph of a textured surface, possibly a wall or ceiling. A horizontal line, likely a ledge or the edge of a ceiling, runs across the upper portion of the frame. The surface below is dark and covered in numerous small, light-colored specks and dust particles, giving it a rough or aged appearance. The lighting is very low, resulting in a high-contrast, almost abstract image.

A dark, grainy, black and white photograph of a landscape. The foreground is mostly black with some white speckles. A bright, horizontal line runs across the middle of the image, suggesting a horizon or a body of water reflecting light. Above this line, there are some faint, blurry shapes that could be trees or structures. The overall image is very dark and has a high level of contrast.

WILLIAM A. SMITH, Editor.
PUBLISHED WEEKLY, except on Sundays.

Statistics show that the number of people who would have supported Mr. Smith in the presidential election of 1880, is the largest number of votes ever cast in the United States, but that the number of votes cast for him was the smallest.

The Boston Transcript contains the following article: "The influence of the press is becoming more and more important in the political life of the nation. It is the power of the press that has made the difference between the success and failure of many a candidate for office."

The National Democrat contains the following article: "The influence of the press is becoming more and more important in the political life of the nation. It is the power of the press that has made the difference between the success and failure of many a candidate for office."

CHARLEVOIX, APRIL 23, 1894.

WILLIAM A. BARNES, Editor.
ED. F. FARRAR, Associate Editor.

George Duff is in town.
—Gen. E. B. Smith arrived today.
—Mrs. Burns arrived by stage today.
—John Stevens of Milwaukee was in town Friday.

—The millinery windows bloom with new goods.
—The Sexton building is receiving a coat of paint.
—Commissioner Wayburn is grading and graveling Antism street.

—Greening & Green made a haul of 1100 pounds of whitefish and trout yesterday.

—C. H. Ogden of J. L. Hurn & Co. has loaned use of the Eaton cottages on Mason street.

—The water in Pine and Round lakes is very high below the water mark of last fall.

—Mrs. Ella Smith has been receiving a large line of new millinery goods. Call and see them.

—The Joplin Valley road to Antism and Charlevoix will be improved in July.

—Mrs. Dr. Graves left last Wednesday for a visit among relatives at Kalamazoo and Grand Rapids.

—William Van Dusen and Mrs. May Marshall were married at the Congregational church on the 12th inst. by Rev. C. T. Van Anken.

—As a sample of the thorough manner in which E. J. Newman & Co. do house painting, we call attention to the Sexton building.

—Thirty young colored men have been engaged in Detroit to serve as waiters in the Arlington hotel at Petoskey during the coming season.

—The senior editor enjoyed the distinguished honor of being placed back back last Friday, in a square collar and office suit, with the President of Charlevoix. We have gone into active training for the old man, and will change this record before the leaves fall again, or we are mistaken.

—We invite business men to call and inspect the Sexton's stock of paper. We are satisfied that we have the finest assortment ever brought into the county. We also have on order at the Sexton a variety of beautiful type of a new style, which will enable us to do finer work than ever yet produced in this part of the country.

—What came near being a serious accident occurred Thursday while the tug Smoke and Stevenson were breaking the ice against the large Otto, three miles out. The tug was almost in contact with the Otto, when the large started and veered into the Stevenson, passing her against the Smoke and the latter against the solid ice with no apparent harm.

—Bennie Jeffers, queen of the gymnastics at the United States, was married at Dayton, O., Tuesday, where her people have large landed property. The bride was in the tug, and the bridegroom was in the Otto. The bride was in the tug, and the bridegroom was in the Otto.

—A correspondent of the Bellevue Press, writes as follows: "Tell your friends that Oregon and Washington Territory is not the country it is cracked up to be. Hundreds of emigrants regret the foolish money they have made and are now in the hands of the law. All the land worth having was taken long ago. I have seen a good deal of this country and do not like it at all."

—Charles, Bartholomew & Co. have a new advertisement in this issue. This firm has well known that the Sexton's motto is to give the best for the least. Mr. Carpenter, as manager, adds by his able corps of printers, constitutes a business establishment complete in all that makes a popular and prosperous mercantile house.

—Perhaps few of our citizens are aware that there comes again to a Sexton was veteran in the person of Capt. Will Tolson. He was with Scott at Ven. Gen. Warren's funeral. He was with Scott at Ven. Gen. Warren's funeral. He was with Scott at Ven. Gen. Warren's funeral.

—The late John Smith, who was killed by the party which captured Santa Anna's house at San Antonio and saw that General several times in battle. Capt. Tolson was three years and seven months in the regular cavalry during the Mexican campaign, and relates with animation the story of his mountain march and under the leadership of Scott and Taylor, and in his own peculiar linguistic connection says "I never had such a merry life, I never had any since." The captain says he don't want any pension, if a Mexican War veteran pension bill would enable that worthy soldier, Dr. Williams, Charlevoix county has another name that was in the person of Gen. Ryan of Bay Mills.

Marine.

The tug whistles have begun their screaming for the bridge, and the ship's crew of command is heard on the main deck as the tug's whistles point their bows toward Milwaukee.

The North Star made her first trip up the lake Sunday.

The schooner Hercules and A. R. Wright sailed for Milwaukee and Manitowish, Monday. They were towed out through three miles of floating ice.

The Sea Gem sailed Monday, with Capt. Tim Smith.

The tug J. H. Martin arrived here from Manitowish, Friday. She will do general towing. Capt. Stevens is a captain well known to vessel men.

The Mocking Bird has a new mainmast.

The Louis Mason was towed to Manitowish, Monday, to receive a cargo of wood.

The tug Smoke draws eight feet and the Martin nine.

Capt. Geo. Harrison is fitting out and will sail the schooner Flamingo this season.

Capt. Bennett is fitting up the cabin of the Clara Belle in elegant style.

The schooner Harrier was stored ashore by the ice at Good Harbor Bay on Friday, and telegraphed from Leland to Manitowish for a tug.

The steamer Lon Cummings arrived at Northport, on her first trip, on Friday.

The steamer North Star has a time table in this issue.

The steamer Clara Belle will commence running on her East Jordan and Petoskey route tomorrow.

The steamer Harrier arrived Friday evening from Chicago. She has a considerable freight for Charlevoix and Pine Lake merchants. She cleared Saturday forenoon, for Beaver Island.

The steamer Champlain is up in dry dock at Manitowish. She will be placed on her old route this week.

The Gazelle, Booth, Lottie Mason, Sea Gem and Hercules are repaired.

The Lon Cummings is in the harbor. The cabin of the Gazelle is to be refurnished.

The steamer Flora from Detroit arrived at Mackinaw Friday.

D. H. Smith will go as mate of the schooner Hercules this season.

The North Star began her regular trips to Bay Mills this morning.

It is reported that Will Smith of Bay Mills, is to be clerk on the steamer Flora this season, and Will A. Aldrich, master.

The schooner Sea Gem arrived in Manitowish this morning.

Stoppel & Co. of East Jordan, have chartered the schooner Josie Phillips and Eagle Wing of Chicago, for their lumber trade.

The tug Payne, Hilgite and Kittie Smoke have formed a combination against the tug Martin, and will solid front him on the new coast near St. Ignace.

The captain of Martin, however, says he has come here to stay.

The Detroit and Cleveland steam navigation company's steamer City of Cleveland will leave Monday night at 10 o'clock for Alpena and, way ports, and, if the permits will continue on to Cheboygan, Mackinac and St. Ignace.

The Kitty Smoke, the new tug from Mackinac, fills a want at this port. She is powerful. Her cylinder is 18x20.

Today of much more power than that of the Stevenson, which is only 14x16. The action of her engine in breaking through the ice for the relief of the Otto shows that she is very feasible. She is owned by Wm. and Peter Deussen, her captain and fireman. Mike Rick is her engineer.

The large John Otto from Chicago arrived at this port Thursday, loaded with lumber for the Pine Lake Iron Co.

She encountered heavy ice about three miles out and whiffled for a tug. The Kitty Smoke and Bob Stevenson went out and found her stuck fast. She was released by the Kitty Smoke and arrived at three P. M. being the first Chicago boat of the season. She cleared for that port Saturday morning laden with pig iron.

Cleaners.
Clearances from the port of Charlevoix for ports outside the Michigan district for the week ending yesterday evening:

Wm. J. Lawrence, light, in charge.
Wm. J. Lawrence, light, in charge.
Wm. J. Lawrence, light, in charge.

Another good job of saw the past week. Mr. Morgan's force, has changed hands and Will Thurgan now claims him and is building a stable for his accommodation.

Dennis Yetton is clearing off the following amount of things conveniently.

Morgan preached to a large congregation in the Atwood school house, Sunday. Fred Deussen owns his new house this week Wednesday with a social dance.

John Smith has returned from the south part of the State with a bride. Also a fine job of cattle and a new wagon.

Rev. C. F. Van Anken has been doing his best this past week, and was unable to occupy his pulpit Sunday.

Common Council.

At the regular meeting of the Village Council on Thursday evening, the following business was transacted.

Capt. Harrison Barlow was elected Village Marshal and Harbor Master.

Geo. W. Crozier was elected President pro tem.

The school bonds were fixed at $4000 and the drainage bonds at $2000.

Guido Bank was elected chief of the Fire Department.

The Council meets again tomorrow (Thursday) evening.

—In the election of Capt. Harrison Barlow as Village Marshal, the Council did a wise thing. Capt. Barlow possesses the elements of judgment, coolness and courage, combined with a physical capacity that peculiarly fits him for the duties of the office.

The Thrush Machine Factory.
This institution is located immediately south of the Charlevoix resort on Pine Lake to the west of the station. The establishment is owned by Geo. A. Leonard and J. M. Eaton and will be known by the firm name of Geo. A. Leonard & Co.

The engine is a 25 horse power Negel engine provided with a 20 horse power boiler. The machinery will complete one point horse handle, one car, one brush, one saw, one pump, one lathe and three saws and will be in active operation by the 1st of May. There is already sufficient stock on hand for the manufacture of 100,000 machines. Both gentlemen connected with the industry are men of exceptional enterprise and Mr. Leonard possesses a life long experience in the business. The establishment will afford employment to eight hands.

Rumblings from South Arm and East Jordan.
Glen & Porter mail has shut down for repairs.

We are told that Phil will hold the office of town clerk at Eagle Hotel.

E. A. H. Cole is deputy clerk.

The building of A. E. Pickard is rapidly nearing its completion. When finished Mr. P. will fill up with a general stock of merchandise. He contemplates doing of this up for a dwelling.

Hugh Brown has returned from his Canadian visit and intends soon to commence building a large store building and hall.

There is considerable talk about a present concerning a town hall, to be erected at East Jordan.

The Rev. Mr. Blake (M. E.) who has been confined to his bed for the past few weeks, we are glad to notice is once more around.

Prof. Colburn from "Up the Jordan" recently smiled on us.

Jim Holten has been heard from. He is now in Kas. and thinks of stopping there for a while provided a cyclone does not meet him.

Eugene Cole is having his hotel thoroughly renovated and newly painted in white.

The Hercules restaurant is newly painted and windows decorated and lettered.

Mrs. J. M. Cummings and Mrs. Monroe Jr. are building fences around their place.

F. H. Baum, is getting out the material for a new frame residence on his farm.

AMEN.
Mr. Croteau tells the house how he would dispose of surplus revenues.

But we are told our treasury is already overflowing. It is true, and we need it to build. If this congress has the courage and manliness to do so we will soon put this revenue in circulation to good purpose.

1. Let us attack the vast amount of illiteracy and ignorance and consequent vice in the land by the encouragement of national education.

2. Commence an American navy worthy of this republic.

3. Improve, restrain, and control the Mississippi river until it shall cease to be a terror to those who dwell along its banks, and until it shall become by art, as it is by nature, the great vital artery of the republic and the great curb on overgrown monopolies.

4. As this nation is, we hope, to be perpetuated, let us begin now a system of adequate public buildings until this government can conduct its own business under its own roof in every town of 10,000 population in the land.

5. If there is still a surplus, then the coast and ocean fishing, care of our merchant marine may claim a share.

And last, but not least, provide more liberal pensions for the widows of those who fell in defending the nation's life, and the maimed and crippled heroes who still linger, maimed of competing in the strenuous race of life.

In the language of the gentleman from Colorado, "enrich the treasury" and "surplus in circulation, to these our country, through need and legitimate expense, and fill the channels of business."

—Subject of discourse at the M. E. church, Sunday morning, "Christ and His Crucifixion." An address to the youth and men of the church.

—The subject of Messrs. Deussen and Hurn of the tug Kittie Smoke are expected here soon.

—The families of Messrs. Deussen and Hurn of the tug Kittie Smoke are expected here soon.

—The families of Messrs. Deussen and Hurn of the tug Kittie Smoke are expected here soon.

—The families of Messrs. Deussen and Hurn of the tug Kittie Smoke are expected here soon.

—The families of Messrs. Deussen and Hurn of the tug Kittie Smoke are expected here soon.

Charlevoix County for State.

The Republican County Committee met at Lewis Hall on Saturday, and appointed Wm. Moore, of Bay Mills, and G. V. Nash, of Nottawa, as delegates to the State Convention.

Every member of the Committee expressed a preference for James G. Blaine for President. Both delegates, being members of the committee, Charlevoix county may be put down for the "Plumed Knight."

Norwood Notes.
Remember there are two sides to every question.

Our sympathy always goes with the under dog in the fight.

It is hardly fair to intimate that you know something dreadful about a person, unless you are willing to give facts and figures. Intimations of that kind will hardly be taken as proof by a majority of the people in the Norwood. There might be a great deal more said on this subject but we forbear. Not good.

The light from the point opposite shows that navigation is open once more.

The hay is nearly free of ice this side of Mission point.

Guyles and Nash have started their mill, planing lumber, and cutting shingles.

At the meeting of town board on Saturday, Dr. Chamberlain was chosen Health officer, William Harris, Census Commissioner, G. D. Hilton and A. Chase, Board of Health.

We are informed that Rexey's report that the passenger on the Cooking Club is "Shut up," is not correct. They say it is "Kiss me quick and go, my honey." That sounds better, don't it?

Gerret V. Nash and Fred J. Meach started on Tuesday for Grand Rapids. Nash goes as a delegate to the State convention. He is a Blaine man. As Meach is a strong Blaine man, he will try hard to convert him to his belief, but he has a good subject to work on, and his chances will be slim.

Western Banks.
Little is heard of our new school teacher in Sherman T. White. Very modest indeed, never once says well. He resembles the types of our new school house. Election was massive; there was not a ticket; but dissatisfied men stood a while on picket. Senior editor says he knows nothing but news. And the way we express will his readers answer. There is a slight touch of sadness when we say: "My boy, for it may be the last from your friend, LITTLE."

—The Hannah and Lay boats have reduced their freight on many articles, 25 per cent.

—Chas. Swallow and Jas. Hennings, the painters, are expected home from Chicago this week.

—The Manufacturing Co. have an advertisement in this issue. They deserve an immense business in this region.

Petroleum Journal. The Lansing Republican reports Prof. Nickle as saying in his address delivered in that city, that if the Democratic party could contribute funds to the Union party to be used as they see fit, there is a chance for the brewers to capture the Prohibition leaders at the outset.

Lansing Republican. Enquiries may be made, and will, governments go and the will of the people be done. It is the brilliancy and intellect of our day, forever forgotten, but still the historical works of that eminent statesman and patriot philanthropist, Josiah W. Hughes, will go on forever in the hearts of the people. "Please send me another little red book, or an annual paper. One is just as good as another."

—Charlevoix is to have another salon, as well as seen by the proceedings of the Council. Charles Chaloupe, has been wound up and set going in the business by the approval of his bonds last Thursday evening.

—Work upon the foundation of Fred Meach's elegant new residence will begin at once. Mr. Meach and family will remove to Charlevoix the latter part of the summer. We are glad they are coming, yet we covet some others of the genial Norwood people.

—The Pine Lake Iron Company's furnace back for week for repairs, and Superintendent Kemp is thoroughly overhauling all machinery about the premises, and getting things in shape for the summer work. There is about fifteen hundred tons of iron on hand for shipment—900 tons having been shipped this spring. The company have just received 50 new wood cars, which now makes 145 in use on their turntable.

—The Sentinel office is in receipt of a series of "lyric" type, the finest ever brought into the county. We are accordingly able to improve our style of fine job work which will challenge comparison. Our new and improved set of Charlevoix has arrived, and orders for work are coming in rapidly. We assure our patrons that we propose to keep to the front in all that constitutes a good paper and modern job office.

—To substantiate our oft-repeated statement regarding the superior advantages of Charlevoix as a lake terminus of a rail road, we cite the opening at this point the present season. Steamers entered Charlevoix harbor from Chicago fully two weeks before they were able to reach any port north of here, or any point on Grand Traverse Bay. Aside from the fact of the existence of our fine harbor, this fact is of great importance in the consideration of the railroad question.

—The annual hand book of the Charlevoix Summer Resort will be issued May 1st. It will contain a complete history of the resort with the names of its proprietors, stock held by each, etc. The book will be enclosed in elegant covers bearing the Sentinel's cut of Charlevoix. Geo. E. Hadden, the secretary of the resort was here last week in the interests of the work.

General Outlines.

Very few men have entered Congress who have attained the prominence, and achieved the success as a legislator that has characterized the Congressional record of our present member, Gen. Byron M. Cutcheon.

His prominence has not been attained by any aggressive disposition to push himself to the front. Such a course generally results with prompt collapse in any legislative assembly. His success as an orator, and his record as a soldier preceded him at Washington, and his ability was at once recognized by his appointment on important committees, in the deliberations of which he has been an intelligent and faithful worker.

His masterly speech on the Fife John Porter case was an acknowledged power in loyal opposition to the arrogant and unjust effort to re-write that portion of the history of the rebellion which records Porter's treason. It gave Gen. Cutcheon a national prominence and sent a thrill through the veins of every patriotic citizen of the Ninth Congressional District, of Michigan and of the Nation.

His speech against the reduction of the tariff on Canadian lumber voices the sentiment of his District and of the State, and embodied strength of argument to a degree which entitles him to the warm thanks of his constituents.

In the calendar of bills introduced by him is reflected a loyalty to the interests of his constituents which overt him as a most industrious and able public servant.

His efforts in behalf of veteran soldiers and his persistent endeavors to equal government aid to better the condition of the indigent portion of our country's defenders in Michigan, awakens a feeling of gratitude in the breast of every lover of his country and friend of the soldier.

We are gratified to learn that there is every likelihood that Gen. Cutcheon will be recommended by acclamation to retain the position he has so signally honored.

Charlevoix county will, we are sure, unite with the others of the District in doing him that honor. His recent active participation in the arguments before the river and harbor committee should call forth a spontaneous expression of the thanks of this country, by an instructed delegation for him.

Gen. Cutcheon is said at Washington to closely resemble the late President Garfield, not only in appearance, but in mental caliber and sterling qualities of character. We think there can be recognized in him capabilities which insure his development into a political nature which will make him distinguishable among the giants of these days as a peer among them and a tower of strength in the councils of the nation.

—We clip the following from the Chicago Tribune of April 20th: Mrs. Elizabeth Davidson Moore, wife of S. M. Moore, died at the family residence, No. 321 West Monroe Street, Saturday morning, of paralysis. She was born in Manchester, N. H., the daughter of James N. Davidson, who removed to Ohio and later to Chicago. Nearly all of her married life was spent in Chicago. To her family Mrs. Moore devoted her first care. Outside of her family she loved her church, the missionary and the temperance work, the Bible work, the various charitable organizations. In all of these she bore an active part. She was remarkable for her daily living as in expectation of the summons that should call her to the home above. These little ones preceded her. She had lived to see two daughters grown to womanhood, and less than one year ago stood at the altar together and take the marriage vows. One remains at the home to cheer and sustain the stricken father; the other is in a foreign land, the wife of a missionary.

—Mrs. Moore who has spent her summers here for a number of years, was widely known as a zealous friend to all Christian organizations. The family have the sincere sympathy of hundreds of friends in Northern Michigan.

—The Republican State Convention at Grand Rapids on Thursday, was a harmonious gathering. There was an animated fight as to who should be delegates at large. The result was that Congressmen Roswell G. Hyde, Col. W. E. Swift of the Northern Pines, and Samuel C. Watson, a colored man of Detroit, and ex-Congressman Julius Harrows, all Hallow men, were chosen delegates-at-large. The delegates from the First, Second, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, and Tenth Districts are for Blaine. The delegates from the third and Eleventh Districts are divided between Blaine and Edwards. M. P. Gale, of Big Rapids, and A. Anderson, of Muskegon, were chosen as delegates from this congressional district, with W. M. Benson of Reed City, and P. R. Williams, of Elk Rapids as alternates. Fred J. Meach, of this county, was chosen a member of the State Central Committee. Although the delegates are unhappily divided, the Republican cause in Michigan will be a bright star in the National Convention.

—In the case of Mary A. Sevidt against the New York, Lake Erie & Western Railroad Company, the Court of Appeals has decided that a railroad corporation is responsible for the death, by accident on its road, of a person riding on a free pass.

Charlevoix Sentinel.

Established 1860.

CHARLEVOIX, JUNE 4, 1894.

WILLIAM A. SMITH, Editor.
J. C. FARMER, Associate Editor.

In response to an invitation to visit the state prison at Joliet, Ill., J. H. Davis says:

Conspicuous there is reported as quite confident that the prisoners will be turned to take them, rather than their confidence for freedom.

E. O. D. Hadden, of Grand Rapids, closes his letter following lines, with the remark: "The first Governor of Michigan was a farmer. It is about time we had another."

One of the most interesting and often repeated items in the columns of the Michigan Sentinel is the statement of Governor Davis that the state prison at Joliet, Ill., is a "model of the kind of thing that should be done."

It has been left for the Detroit Evening News to discuss to the advantage of the state prison at Joliet, Ill., the statement of Governor Davis that the state prison at Joliet, Ill., is a "model of the kind of thing that should be done."

Pure Air For Homes.

VENTILATION seems an easy matter, yet it is in fact one of the most difficult problems with which the architect is engaged in designing and erecting buildings. It is the duty of the architect to see that the ventilation of a building is perfect, and that the air is pure and fresh.

It is the duty of the architect to see that the ventilation of a building is perfect, and that the air is pure and fresh. It is the duty of the architect to see that the ventilation of a building is perfect, and that the air is pure and fresh.

Cameron Bros., TORCH LAKE, Dealers in General Merchandise

With thanks for past favors, we would say that we intend to carry a larger stock this spring than usual. Times are dull, and we expect to make it up in part to our customers by marking stock down to lowest possible figure. Doing largely OUR OWN WORK, freight in vessels coming here otherwise WORK, and with nominal dockage, rent, and other expense, we can place before THE CONSUMER anything that money will buy in Milwaukee or Chicago at as LOW RATES as can be obtained at any point on the Bay. We shall at all times be pleased to quote figures, and compare values.

Cameron Bros., TORCH LAKE,
Dealers in General Merchandise

With thanks for past favors, we would say that we intend to carry a larger stock this spring than usual.

Times are dull, and we expect to make it up in part to our customers by marking stock down to lowest possible figure.

Doing largely OUR OWN WORK, freighting in vessels coming here otherwise empty, and with nominal charges, rest, and other expense, we can place before THE CONSUMER anything that money will buy in Milwaukee or Chicago at as LOW RATES as can be obtained at any point on the Bay.

We shall at all times be pleased to quote figures, and comprise values.

Yours truly,

CAMERON BROS.

Who Is Going to be Our Next

PRESIDENT?

Is the Question of to-day.

But It Is a Decided Fact

That GEO. W. MILLER has got the Latest Styles, Best Fitting and

Biggest Stock of CLOTHING in Charlevoix County, for money or marbles.

My stock of Furnishing Goods, Hats and Caps, Trunks and Satchels, Gloves and Mittens is complete. Satisfy yourselves before buying elsewhere. I am making it my study to keep to the front with everything new. You all know I am the only exclusive Clothing House in the County, and this is the reason why you want at prices to compare with any of my neighbors.

AD Task is give me a call, which I think I am deserving of.

A dark, grainy, black and white photograph of a landscape. The image is mostly black with a bright, horizontal line across the upper third, suggesting a horizon or a body of water reflecting light. There are some white specks and noise throughout the image, characteristic of an old film photograph.

Baking Powder.

Who makes Baking Powder fresh pure
That causes my bread to be light and sure
And my husband's smile to always endure,
Dr. CROUTER.

Then at once to Dr. CROUTER'S go
And get some Baking Powder pure as snow
'Twill make your husband laugh and children grow. And don't you forget it.

I've tried it now about twenty times
And all it costs is just four dimes
But its astonishing to see how the biscuit climb
At our house.

measures to prevent the introduction of these diseases into the country.

—The Enterprise says: "H. C. Lane, day has completed the job of setting the poles for the telephone, around the baying to South Arm, and Mr. Stripp has the contract for delivering, on the ground, the poles, between that place and Horton's bay.

—The action work is progressing nicely. A few hands have been engaged all winter on inside work, and J. E.

Greene's large contracts for doors and other work will be completed and then the work will be pushed through to completion, early in the fall—Traverse

News.

—The board of trustees of Kalamazoo college, at which Dr. Brooks of the resort is President, concluded under the auspices of the faculty, on Wednesday, had a special meeting Friday, and read and adopted

resolutions at the end of the current school year—June 30—until the increased funds are sufficient to provide for the expense of the maintenance.

—A new weekly newspaper is soon to be started in Traverse City by Messrs. M.

L. Leach, formerly of the Northwest
